In particular, but without limitation, you agree to perform the duties set forth below:

a) Premiums. You shall collect and receive, or cause to be collected and received, the initial gross premium on Policies secured by you or by sub-agents and brokers assigned to you by LBL, and shall immediately remit all such premiums to LBL. You agree to hold in trust and separate from any other funds all premiums and other funds collected and received by you for the benefit of LBL. - b) Compliance. You will comply with all rules and regulations provided to you by LBL in performing your obligations hereunder.
- c) Legal Compliance. You will keep in good standing all licenses that you need to solicit applications for Policies to be issued by LBL. You will comply fully with all regulations, rulings, circular letters, proclamations and statues, federal, state or local, which are applicable to your appointment and status hereunder.
- d) Acts of others. You shall be responsible and liable for the acts and omissions of the sub-agents and brokers assigned to you by LBL and any damages and obligations arising therefrom, which acts and omissions shall, for purposes of this Contract, be deemed to be those of you and not of LBL.
- e) Bond. You shall, upon demand by LBL, promptly furnish and maintain, at your expense, a security bond satisfactory to LBL for the payment of any and all amounts which are or become due or payable to LBL under this Contract or under any prior or subsequent agreement between you and LBL.

- g) Delivery of Policies. You agree not to deliver a Policy unless you can reasonably determine that the proposed insured is in as good health as at the time of application, and unless the first premium has been fully paid. You agree to return any Policy which cannot be delivered within thirty (30) days for any reason to the LBL's home office at the end of the thirty (30) day delivery period.
- h) Servicing Business. You will provide for all usual and customary services to insureds and policyholders including prompt delivery of Policies, appropriate responses to inquiries and to complaints from insureds or policyholders or members of the public and to comply with any service standards set forth in any exhibit. You will maintain sufficient supplies and equipment and a staff of competent and trained personnel to produce, develop, underwrite and supervise the Policies covered by this Contract.
- i) Privacy. You agree that any nonpublic personal information on any customer or consumer of LBL is provided for the sole purpose of performing routine and essential transactions at the request of LBL. You further agree that said information is considered confidential and will not to be disclosed to any other person or entity without the express written consent of LBL.

4. INDEBTEDNESS

The following obligations shall be due and payable to LBL on demand:

- a) Failure to Remit Premiums. You shall reimburse LBL and hold it harmless from any loss that may result from your failure to remit premiums collected.
- b) Repayment of Commissions. If LBL refunds any premiums received on policies solicited by you, then you shall immediately reimburse LBL for any commissions received.
- c) Any commissions that are charged back as provided in the Commission Schedules, as amended, that are part of this Contract.
- d) If you are a partnership or corporation, those amounts due to LBL shall be a debt to all of the partners or to all of the officers, directors and shareholders of the corporation.

We may offset any indebtedness owed by you, or any sub-agent or broker assigned to you, against any sums due or becoming due to you under the terms of this Contract.

5. COMPENSATION DURING TERM OF CONTRACT

Commission Schedules. Attached hereto as part of this Contract are Commission Schedules that specify the percentages of premium that will be paid to you as commissions in connection with the sale of the Policies by you. Commissions shall be paid only with respect to premiums actually received by LBL. Commissions payable hereunder will be reduced by any commissions paid to any sub-agent or broker appointed to you by LBL on business written by such sub-agent or broker.

Changes in Commission Schedules. LBL shall have the exclusive right and sole discretion at any time to unilaterally terminate any Commission Schedule or to modify all or any portion of any such Schedule, or the rate, amount or method for determining the commission or compensation, provided such action is uniformly taken with respect to all persons to whom such Commission Schedules apply. Such modifications or terminations shall become effective no less than thirty (30) days from the date LBL gives you written notice and, unless otherwise agreed to by you and LBL in writing, shall have no effect on compensation resulting from policies with an effective date prior to the effective date of such modification or termination.

Accumulation of Commissions. If commissions payable to you in any period amount to less than fifty dollars ($50), LBL may defer payment until the accumulated commissions due to you amount to at least fifty dollars ($50).

Commissions Relating to Special Situations. The commissions paid to you by LBL with reference to conversion, extra premiums and Policies substituted for others upon the same life and modified forms of Policies shall be determined by such practices and regulations as LBL shall establish from time to time, and shall not be affected by the Commission Schedules. No commissions shall be allowed to you with reference to preliminary term insurance, temporary extra premiums of five years or less, or premiums waived or commuted by reason of death, disability or exercise of Policy options.

Licensing. You will pay the fee for your initial resident license and appointment fee. You will bear the cost of any nonresident license and appointment fee for you and any sub-agents and brokers assigned to you by LBL. You will bear the cost of all renewal resident license fees and the costs associated with license maintenance for you and any sub-agents and brokers assigned to you by LBL. LBL will pay the resident renewal appointment fee for you or any sub-agent or broker if you or the applicable sub-agent or broker has met LBL's requirement for paid business in the preceding twelve (12) months.

Company Forms. LBL will provide you, at LBL's cost, with application forms, brochures and the various forms necessary to write and service Policies. You will be responsible for all other business expenses.

Advertising and Sales Promotion. LBL will furnish, at LBL's cost, all blanks, advertising materials, circulars and other printed sales material. LBL will consider your suggestions or requests for specialized solicitation material, but none may be used without LBL's prior written approval.

Premium Refunds. If LBL shall refund any premium received by us in accordance with Article 4 (b) hereof, you shall immediately repay LBL any commissions received by you with respect to such premium.

- g) Violate any criminal law or statute,
- h) Make any material misrepresentation or perform any fraud or dishonesty affecting LBL or its policyholders, or

A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment or to take another adverse action against you must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security Number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit: www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:
