Q & A

How much does it cost?

The Group Based Activities line item is ratio specific. Depending on how many people attend, the hourly rate is split across the number of participants, generally 1:4. There is also a fee for the event itself which is billed under the Community Participation Activities line item, this is not charged on an hourly basis but it a one off, per session payment

Is transport to and from provided?

We can organise for a support worker to take you to and from the event if you require assistance. Our support workers can also stay with you at the event if you feel you require support

How long is this program?

The Dungeons and Dragons campaign runs twice a week over the duration of the school holidays. Each session is 3 hours long for a total of 12 hours. Please email us for the timetable

I am agency managed, can I claim for this?

Yes, we are a registered provider and you can participate wheather you are Plan, Self or Agency Managed
