

lege of Oratory at Boston.—At the meeting of the Lake Taconic Association Willard H. Sweet, M. D., was chosen Chairman and Hon. C. W. Reynolds Secretary. Moses King of Springfield, Mass., was elected President, Assemblyman C. W. Reynolds Secretary, James H. Duffie Vice President and H. Jesse Moses of Springfield, Mass., Treasurer. The Directors are: Harry Lewis and H. J. Moses, of Springfield, Mass.; E. W. Greenman, J. H. Duffie and A. P. Finder, of Troy. It was decided to build a commodious boarding house next year. Up to two years ago the lake was seldom visited. Now boating parties are seen almost constantly gliding along in the beautiful association boats. About sixty tourists were at the lake at one time this season. Lots have been laid out and streets made 100 feet wide. A driveway twenty feet wide will be made around the lake. Six cottages have already been built. Among those who will sojourn at the lake soon are: Assemblyman and Mrs. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duffie, Miss Grace Reynolds, Miss Lucy Duffie, Dr. Fred Green of Albany and Ervin Dole and William A. Cox. of Boston.—Owing to the
