

son, John Cook.—W. C. King, J. M. S. Leach and H. Jesse Moses of The King-Richardson Company, of Springfield, Mass., and W. T. Tyner of The Troy Evening Standard visited Lake Taconic, in Grafton, Thursday. Messrs. King, Leach and Tyner each selected a building lot. Mr. Moses had previously bought a lot. A number of others will purchase lots.—The Highway Commissioners of Grafton have had a public road made leading to the lake and starting from the highway near Jerome Covey's dwelling.—Indications point to a large crop
