

HEARING DOUBLE

Networking Event

Join us for an educational and networking event for children with hearing loss, from elementary to high school ages, to learn about hearing loss, develop self-advocacy skills, and connect with peers.

The event will be led by Kate and Kylie Miller, who are identical twins both born with hearing loss and studying to be future audiologists.

Find more information at: officialmillertwins.com

