

The Richmond Bluegrass Jam is a successful annual event where local music fans of all ages gather with the goal of raising money to support military veterans through the Richmond Fisher House, a home-away-from-home for the families of soldiers and veterans recuperating at Richmond's McGuire Veterans Medical Center, and Liberation Veteran Services, which provides homeless veterans the shelter, care, and resources they need to rebuild their lives.

On April 22, 2023, from 11:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., we'll have some of the region's best bluegrass, old-time, and roots bands playing on multiple stages in a festival atmosphere with food, drink, and lots to do for everyone! It's the perfect example of the best of local Richmond coming together to support a local cause.

First and foremost, we're at the Jam to raise money for military veterans and families. Proceeds from the event will go to the Richmond Fisher House (richmondfisherhouse.org) and Liberation Veteran Services (lvsrva.org).

Over the past twelve years, we've raised and donated more than $204,000! We are committed to keeping the momentum going at our 13th Annual Jam.

At the last Richmond Bluegrass Jam, more than 3,000 people joined in the fun, and the atmosphere was simply amazing. We expect another big crowd this year, all in support of a worthy cause!

The venue is American Legion Post 354 in Midlothian, Virginia, and there will be lots of media and advertising to get the word out, including web, print, TV, radio, and social media.

Please join us and support the great work of the Richmond Fisher House and Liberation Veteran Services as they take care of our deserving military veterans and their families.
