TLF Limited Management LLC provides quality, market-specific production management, project coordination, event planning, business and grant proposal writing, and publications management. Our clients have a need for project and event planning and management, from the overall project design, through development and implementation, to delivery and follow up. Through its publishing imprint, Lifestyle Publishing, TLF Limited offers full graphic design, editorial, layout, and print services for self-publishers. Established in 1990, TLF Limited assists clients in one or more of three (3) functional areas:

Design

TLF Limited designs the most ideal, customized project for each client -- strategic planning, including project or event conceptualization, determining goals, and formulating objectives and strategies for the accomplishments of milestones.

Development

TLF Limited provides detailed direction for implementation – production staffing and management, publication management, program and speaker, logistics, instructional design, audio/visual support, media, and catering for events; and organized program management, leadership, and staffing for projects.

Delivery

TLF Limited delivers, on time and within budget – training, short subject and feature length motion picture projects, publications, grant and commercial proposals, project management, site supervision and event staffing, status reports, surveys and survey analysis, follow-up project report, and post-project publicity.

“When it comes to program management, we have never been disappointed with TLF Limited Management – they are very professional and dedicated project managers. “

Angela Broom, J.D.
