Trumpet | Electronic and Acoustic

Biography

Joshua Trinidad is an Indigenous, Chicano American trumpet player, composer and producer from Denver Colorado, who takes multiple styles of music such as jazz, ambient, rock, electronic and lo-fi, as well as elements from hip hop and effortlessly reshapes them into his unique soundscape.

His remarkable ease in handling the often-contrary conventions of "jazz" ensured a strong interest in both acoustic and electric music. This chameleon-like ability soon established him as a much sought-after musician in the southwest region of the United States as well as in Europe and Central Asia, ultimately led to his colorful and diverse resume as a sideman. During his time recording and performing in Scandinavia, Joshua Trinidad was introduced to Giacomo Bruzzo, who welcomed him into his prestigious and much-lauded roster RareNoise Records in London, England. Alongside recording Joshua's own material, he has recorded many studio sessions with artists such as Sage Francis, Chicano Batman, Nathaniel Rateliff, Kid Frost, DJ Lethal, Ken Burns, Riatsu, Umlaut and many artists and bands in the Denver Metro Area. Joshua Trinidad is a thriving artist on the EchoTonic Records label in Mumbai, India.

Trinidad has his own individual sound, influenced as much by the poetry of the Rocky Mountain nature as by electronic piston reverb. Listening to him play, it's easy to forget that his instrument is a trumpet. -JazzTimes Magazine

Joshua Trinidad Trio - Norway Project

Denver-based trumpeter-composer Joshua Trinidad makes a strikingly original statement on his RareNoise debut, In November. Recorded in Giske, Norway, this highly evocative trio outing features the adventurous Norwegian guitarist-composer and ECM recording artist Jacob Young and drummer Stale Liavik Solberg, a central figure on Oslo's improvising music scene. Brimming with deep and winding lyricism, Trinidad's elegiac seventh album as a leader is a compelling mix of bold long tones on trumpet, atmospheric guitaristry, fluid melodic invention and daring group improv, all delivered with rare authority by the three intrepid improvisers.

Joshua Trinidad, a virtuosic trumpeter based in Denver, joins forces with a distinctive Norwegian rhythm section composed of guitarist Jacob Young and drummer Stale Liavik Solberg. Boasting an entrancing sound, this bass-less trio gave the best treatment to Trinidad's compositions, starting with "Bedside". CLICK HERE: Read More

Man möchte ja nicht meinen, dass ein Jazz-Trompeter wie Joshua Trinidad hierher gehört, doch tatsächlich ergibt die Besprechung von „In November“, dem Album seines Trios, dem auch Jacob Young an der Gitarre und Ståle Liavik Solberg am Schlagzeug angehören, Sinn. CLICK HERE: Read More

Lirismo è il termine più appropriato e che più di una volta viene in mente ascoltando "In November" del giovane (34 anni) trombettista messicano Joshua Trinidad trapiantato negli Usa per i suoi lavori precedenti e successivamente in Norvegia per la realizzazione di questo bellissimo nuovo album, dove è accompagnato soltanto dai norvegesi Jacob Young (chitarra elettrica) e Stale Liavik Solberge (batteria). Унылый осенний пейзаж, на который мы смотрим через покрытое дождевыми каплями стекло – так выглядит обложка альбома In November. В этом оформлении (автор – Петулия Матиолли) чудится что-то от ECM-овской эстетики, и, на мой взгляд. CLICK HERE: Read More

Joshua Trinidad omgitt av Jacob Young og Ståle Liavik Solberg – et overraskende møte. Musikk dreier seg jo i stor grad om møter og dette er av det overraskende slaget. Trinidad, bosatt og stort sett arbeidende i området rundt Denver i Colorado, hadde møtt Young på festival i Sør-Korea i 2007. Dessuten hadde han vært fan av Liavik Solbergs trommespill minst like lenge. Det var litt av årsaken til at de møttes på Ocean Sound Recordings Studios på Giske på Sunnmøre ei lita novemberuke i 2015. CLICK HERE: Read More

Curated by Bengalaru label Subcontinental Records founder Arun Natarajan, Lithium brings together the minds of Denver, Colorado trumpet artist Joshua Trinidad and Mumbai ambient producer Riatsu aka Shadaab Kadri. Released today, there's also a video for "He Was Right Here" that's directed by filmmaker-photographer Sharath U. Holla, with Arun's father playing the role of a man who alters his mind-frame through the happy pill that Lithium became known as.
