Dear Mr. White:

Thank you for submitting your equipment application to use your product, Launch Pad Kicking Tee, in NCAA Football competition.

This product, as presented in your equipment application, was reviewed and does meet our current rules and is therefore legal for NCAA competition. For purposes of clarity, the NCAA does not endorse or approve of any equipment used for NCAA competition, and is responding only to your specific inquiry as to whether this particular piece of equipment is permissible under current NCAA playing rules. Accordingly, you should not interpret this correspondence as the NCAA's endorsement or promotion of the Launch Pad Kicking Tee.

I hope this information is helpful. Please contact me or Ty Halpin at the NCAA if you have additional questions.

Thank you for your continued interest in the NCAA.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Steve Shaw".

Secretary-Rules Editor,
