The Track

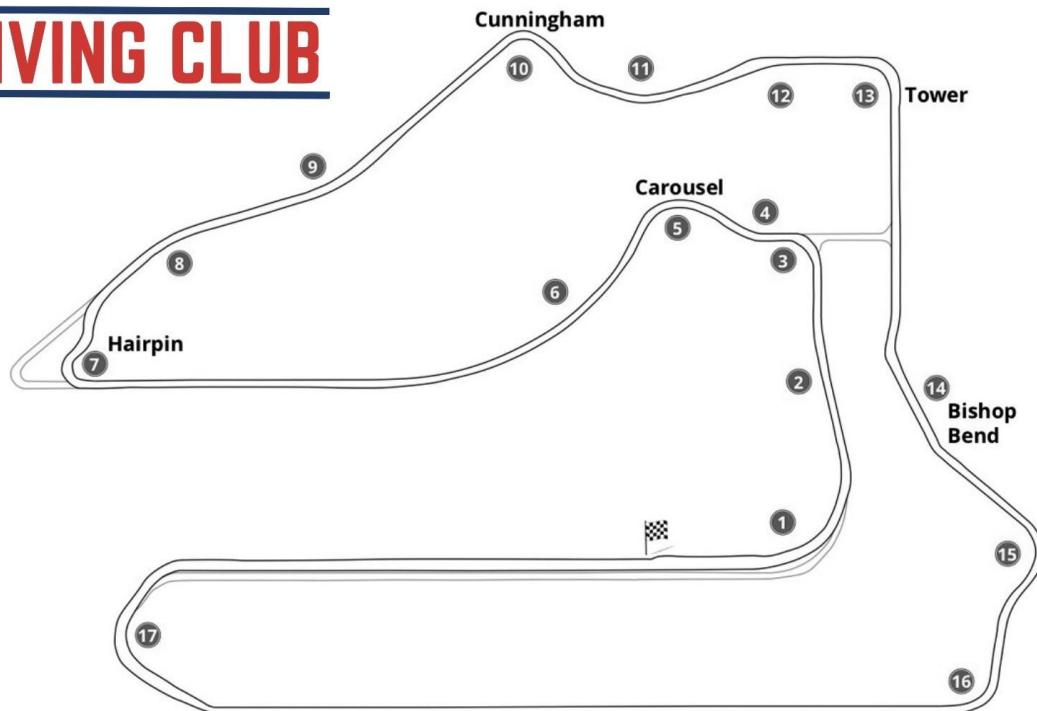

The 3.741-mile Sebring International Raceway™ is America's premier endurance racing circuit—and the nation's oldest continuously operating road course.

Originating as a WWII Army Air Force base, Sebring held its first 12-hour race in 1952. Founder Alec Ullmann transformed the facility into one of America's most revered racing venues, second only to Le Mans in international sports car prestige. For over 70 years, Sebring has welcomed the world's top drivers and manufacturers seeking endurance glory.
