

Reflections Dance Center

Code Of Ethics

Reflections Dance Center Mission Statement:

To have our dancers achieve new levels of artistry and performance beyond what is possible in their regular class work. To train and empower students to a pre-professional level with a competitive edge who may consider dance as a major or minor in college. To make possible a young dancer's dream to pursue a career in theatre, dance performance, or as a dance educator.

Values

- Integrity - To conduct oneself with integrity through honesty, courtesy, respect, and consideration for your fellow dance members and faculty. This includes a willingness to be held accountable for the manner in which you participate in all company activities.
- Leadership - To be given the privilege of setting an example, serving the people you are leading, and being an inspiration to others in the Reflections Dance Center community.
- Responsibility - To adhere to the policies and procedures of the studio and company, to comply with the schedule and requests of the faculty, and to be a person that others can count on.
- Professionalism - To respect the dance profession and uphold our values and standards of conduct in a way that characterizes the highest qualities of dance professionals. This includes respecting your teachers, supporting and encouraging each other, to not gossip, but be able to voice opinion to a company director about your concern, and to recognize yourself as a role model at all times.
- Character - To be a person who represents personal integrity, leadership, responsibility and professionalism in classes, outside activities and events, and in all interactions with peers and authority figures.

We are a 100% free bullying studio. The safety and well-being is our priority for all our students, parents, and staff at RDC. Therefore, any student, parent, or staff member involved or making any threat (verbally or physically), will be handled and/or resolved by our Director, and may result in refusal of any RDC services or immediate dismissal of the studio.
