Family Gratitude

The entire family would like to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation for all of the love showered upon us during this transition and very difficult time. We thank you for everything you've done to make this load a little easier to bear. Many have come from far and near to express love, respect, appreciation and admiration for God's Servant! Your presence and participation is greatly appreciated.

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF RAYMOND Warren SERAILE, JR.

MARCH 9, 1955 - MAY 18, 2020
"The Steps of a Good Man are Ordered by the Lord"

Raymond Warren Seraile, Jr. was born on March 9, 1955 to the parentage of the late Raymond W. Seraile, Sr. and Audrey Alexander Seraile in New Orleans, Louisiana. In 1992, he relocated to The Colony, Texas.

Raymond Warren Seraile, Jr. was baptized and accepted Christ at a very early age. He attended Trinity Lutheran Church of New Orleans, Louisiana. Upon job transition he united with Friendship Baptist Church of The Colony Texas under the leadership of Pastor Paul C. McBride. He faithfully served as a Deacon under the current leadership of Pastor Gregory C. Trotter. Raymond also participated in Vacation Bible School, Male Chorus, Youth Ministry, Bible Study, Scholarship Ministry, Mature Ministry, Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets.

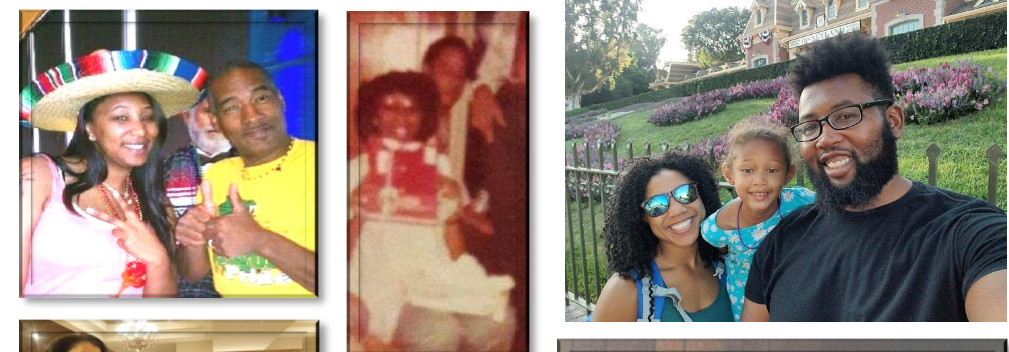

Raymond had a genuine love for the Lord, his family, the arts, and cooking. Everyone Raymond encountered... from children to adults, fell in love with him immediately. His wife, children, and grandchildren loved and adored him.

He attended Joseph A. Hardin Elementary School, Lawless High School and Marion Abramson High School in New Orleans, Louisiana. After graduating high school, he furthered his education at Southern University of New Orleans where he was an active member of Student Government. He continued to pursue his educational aspirations at Paris Junior College and Dallas Baptist University.

Raymond had a passion for making and repairing jewelry, arts and crafts, leather making, decoupage, cooking, and listening to jazz music.

Raymond Warren Seraile, Jr. departed this earthly life on May 18, 2020. He was preceded in death by his father, Raymond W. Seraile, Sr.; mother, Audrey Alexander Seraile; and mother-in-law, Carolyn Allen.

He leaves to cherish his loving and precious memories: his wife, Kim Johnson Seraile; children, Raymond W. Seraile, III (Kirsten), Jamahl R. Seraile (Jana), Shardée S. Ogonor (Phillip), and Alesia A. Seraile; grandchildren, Nehemiah Seraile, Jada Seraile, Jeremiah Seraile, Keyana Landers, Audrey Seraile, Elijah Ogonor, Kymbal Landers, and Raymond Seraile, IV; siblings, David A. Seraile; Jean S. Addison, and Don G. Seraile (Roberta), along with a host of other relatives and friends that loved him dearly.
