

Safe Surrender Contract for Pomeranian to Southern California Pomeranian Rescue

It is understood that once a Pomeranian is surrendered to Southern California Pomeranian Rescue, the owner relinquishes all rights to said Pomeranian. The Pomeranian will be given adequate health care for any pre-existing health conditions as well as for any health problems that arise. Prior to placement the Pomeranian must be spayed/neutered and have a microchip placed. All Pomeranians taken in by Southern California Pomeranian Rescue will be placed with foster parents for the duration of their re-homing process. The owner surrendering the said Pomeranian will not be allowed to re-adopt the Pomeranian and may be denied future applications at the discretion of the rescue. The owner surrendering the said Pomeranian MUST disclose all pre-existing health conditions and provide the rescue with any microchip or tattoo identification numbers, health records, rabies certificates, & kennel club registrations.

I _____ am surrendering all rights to my beloved Pomeranian on this ____ day of _____, 20___. His/her known call name is _____. To the best of my knowledge this Pomeranian is free of health conditions unless otherwise specified below. I certify that I have given the rescue organization all documentation regarding the purchase, care of, and registration of this Pomeranian. In addition I have disclosed any behavioral issues that my beloved pet has. I also understand that if I choose to adopt a Pomeranian from the rescue in the future, I may be required to show proof of my ability to care for the future pet.
