

I assist clients with the acquisition, management and disposition of business and personal assets.

This includes the creation of new business entities, the purchase of existing business entities, the purchase of selected assets of existing business entities, the management of those entities, and the disposition of the owner's interests in those entities by sale during life or upon death.

I assist clients with the drafting of contracts, powers of attorney, wills, and revocable trusts, and with disputes regarding them.

I assist clients with probates, conservatorships, and guardianships.
