Crooked Kilt is excited to be performing with the MSD Irish Dancers who will dazzle you with their energetic footwork and grace! This special ONE evening event will be something the whole family will enjoy!

MSD Irish Dance Academy (An Misneach Sionnach Damhsa), meaning "The Courage of a Dancing Fox", trains dancers who courageously express hope through the spirit of Irish dance. They are located in Millwood (Spokane Valley, Washington) and offer training in both competitive and recreational Irish dance. On stage you will see an attitude of seriousness while they play, much like then fox or in Irish the "sionnach." Please come enjoy tradition Irish dance movements express with playful choreography.
