

The OMLRA Constitution

The Official name of the organisation shall be the “Oil Mill Lane Residents Association”.

The Association is non-party-political and non-profit making.

The aims and objectives of the Association shall be:

- To protect and conserve the rural integrity of our environment.
- To be involved in planning and management of our rural area.
- To promote interest in an understanding of issues that affect Oil Mill Lane and surrounding areas.
- Membership is open to all who live in Oil Mill Lane, and lanes leading from it.
- The Committee of the Association shall consist of nominated members as required all of whom shall be members of the Association and elected to their positions.

The Committee

The management and control of the affairs of the Association shall be in the hands of the Committee.

The Committee may appoint ad hoc committees for special purposes.

The Association shall meet when necessary.

No member or Officer shall make written or oral statements or decisions on behalf of the Association without prior consent of the Committee.

All members should have access to a copy of the constitution.
