

Welcome to Learning through Lit for grades 5-6!

I am so excited to meet you and facilitate your reading and comprehension of literature through great books. Please join me at Open House any time from 10-2 at Oakwood Community Church on Wednesday, August 5 so we can meet and I can answer any questions you may have.

In order to begin and remain organized throughout the year, you will need

- binder with 5 dividers
- paper
- pens, pencils
- hi-lighters
- Post-it notes
- copy of each novel: Farmer Boy, Laura Ingall's Wilder
Trumpet of the Swan, EB White
Number the Stars, Lois Lowry
Caddie Woodlawn, Carol Rynie Brink
- text: Learning Language Arts Through Literature, Purple, student and teacher edition

Please bring your items with you in a backpack each week. Mellow Yellow and Active are the electronic websites we will use for announcements and assignments. Returning students will need to create a new account since existing accounts will be deleted from Mellow Yellow at the end of July. Information will be provided at Open House to create a new account. Weekly assignments will be accessed and submitted here.

Please let me know if I can assist in any way. Looking forward to a great year together!

Blessings,
Candace Rydell
