- Our writers are human. While we strive for excellence, small errors may occur. That's why we send drafts—please review carefully. You are allowed two rounds of edits at no additional cost.
- All materials (photos, service details, wording, etc.) must be submitted via email only to ensure clarity and documentation.
- If you are not the paying party, please forward the contract and policy notice to the appropriate person.
- A signed contract form (digital signature accepted) is required before any work begins.
- The final version without watermarks will only be sent after the deposit is paid.

Thank you for helping us honor your loved one with care, accuracy, and professionalism.
