- Minor design/layout improvements
- Troubleshooting and general maintenance

Rate may vary based on update volume, complexity, or turnaround expectations.

Hosting & Domain Notice

We work with a variety of platforms including GoDaddy, Wix, Squarespace, and WordPress—based on what fits your goals best.

- Hosting and domain fees are not included in the listed setup or maintenance prices.
- These costs are billed separately by the platform and remain the responsibility of the client.
- If you already have a domain or hosting provider, we're happy to build within your existing setup.

Clients maintain full ownership and access to their accounts once the project is complete.
