GOLDEN WEDDING ANNI- VERSARY IS OBSERVED

Couple Re-married At Same Place
That Vows Were Spoken Fifty Years Ago

In a beautiful ceremony, the holy bonds of matrimony between Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmid, respected residents of Zumbra Heights and well known throughout this entire vicinity, were renewed after fifty years of blissful marriage.

The golden wedding took place at Saint Victoria's Catholic church on Tuesday morning of the past week at nine o'clock in the morning. The Reverend Ives Beu, O.F.M., officiated at the high mass, which was followed by the impressive singing of the "Te Deum" by the entire congregation.

Fifty years ago, on April 2, 1883, Frank Schmid and Anna Poppler stood in the same spot, two popular young people about to set out on a successful voyage through life together, with all the hopes and aspirations that fill the hearts of the newly betrothed. Attending them in the ceremony were Mrs. Sarah Green, still living, Thomas Schmid, Mrs. Elizabeth Olsen, and John Poppler, deceased.

Following the re-marriage, a reception for relatives and close friends was given at the Schmid home. A setting of snap-dragons, carnations, Easter and calla lilies added cheer to the occasion. Mrs. Schmid greeted the guests, attired in a dress of orchid crepe, with a hat to match and wearing a corsage bouquet of orange snap-dragons.

On the festive board was a gold and white decorated wedding cake, which matched tapers, and the entire decorative scheme of gold and white.

Among the many gifts received was a set of gold tableware, presented by the couple's children, who are: Mrs. Christ Guyen, (Sarah,) Saint Bonifacius; Mrs. A. O. Kelley, (Theresa,) Frank J. Schmid, Mrs. George Logelin, (Catherine,) and Mrs. Joseph Ridgeway, (Margaret,) Minneapolis; Mrs. J. C. Dale, (Rose,) Excelsior; Mrs. Louis Leizinger, (Mary,) Zumbra Heights; Mrs. Joseph Scheuman, (Helen,) Minneapolis, and Raymond Schmid, Zumbra Heights.

In the evening a charivari was given the happy couple by friends.

The invited guests, besides the members of the family and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Schmid were; Rev. Ives, O.F.M., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmid, Avon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmieg, Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cress and son, Roland, Prior Lake; Mrs. Frank Poppler, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Poppler, of near Waconia; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Poppler, Chaska; Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Crisnach, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ebert, Orville Neutgens, St. Bonifacius; Miss Katie Derhaag, Miss Mamie Schmieg, and Mrs. Anna Reus.

The Herald extends congratulations and wishes for many more such happy years for the couple.
