

LFWI WRITING COMPETITION 2025/26

Imagine it's 1915 and you have just been to your first WI meeting. Write a letter to a friend telling her why she should join.

We are fortunate to have many talented writers within our Federation. In recent years, several of our members achieved success with their entries to the Lady Denman Cup Competition, which was run by NFWI until 2023. We have now decided to host our own competition and invite WI members to submit their entries to us by Monday, 9th February.

(No more than 750 words)

(A reminder that AI didn't exist in 1915 ☺)

Entries can be submitted either via email or by hard copy and typed if possible. Each entry should be accompanied by an entry form.

Two copies of your entry should be included. One copy should state your name, WI, and word count, and the second copy should be kept anonymous.

The winner will be announced at the ACM in April 2026.
