Campaign background

Ending violence against women has been a longstanding priority for the WI. Through our No More Violence and Not in my Name campaigns, we have been raising awareness and taking action to end the scourge of violence against women.

Since 2012, NFWI-Wales has been involved in the Not in my Name campaign which involves WI members recruiting allies from their local community, including men and boys, to help challenge inappropriate attitudes and behaviours and achieve a culture change where violence is not tolerated by society.

Annually, the WI takes action during the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence from 25 November (White Ribbon Day and the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women) to 10 December (Human Rights Day).

The white ribbon is a symbol of men's opposition to violence against women. Wearing a white ribbon is a promise to 'never use, excuse or remain silent about men's violence against women'.
