About Us

PAC Events began as a family founded business with a passion for bringing people together through exceptional events and that same personal touch still defines everything we do today.

Established in 2003 and now with offices in Berkshire, Surrey, and the West Midlands, we provide a seamless, end-to-end service for clients across the UK and internationally.

From corporate conferences, incentive travel, and awards evenings to private celebrations and milestone moments, we design and deliver bespoke events tailored to your unique goals. Our dedicated team of experienced planners is hands-on, detail-focused, and genuinely committed to making your vision a reality.

Whether it's venue sourcing, travel and accommodation logistics, catering, or entertainment, we take care of every element – so you can focus on enjoying the experience.

Event planning doesn't have to be overwhelming. With PAC's proven track record, industry expertise, and personal approach, you're in safe hands. Let's work together to create something unforgettable.

Global Travel Management Support

PAC are a proud partner of Global Travel Management, a fully licensed Travel Management Company (ABTA, ATOL, IATA). With Global Travel Management, we are able to supply a complete door-to-door range of services to all of our customers. From airport car parking in the UK, to airlines tickets, to airport-city centre transfers at your destination; we play an active role in our customer's daily travel arrangements. Our service portfolio includes the following:

- A complete airline reservations and ticketing service for all IATA airlines
- A complete hotel reservations service
- Ground transportation
- Rail – UK, Eurostar, Le Shuttle and European rail tickets
- Visa & passport procurement
- Management Information
- A 24 hour emergency service
- E-Worldshopper – an online facility enabling us to tap into the global network of the Advantage Focus Partnership & WIN. E-Worldshopper enables us to issue tickets which originate abroad at air fares which are not made available in the UK marketplace.

Testimonials

Customer Feedback

I've worked with PAC events for nearly 20 years while running a variety of UK and International businesses. From small team building sessions, to customer events and large-scale country kick offs, their creativity and commitment to shaping the right style and tone of event has never failed to deliver.

I have used PAC Events for many years now, both in my current and previous company. Always a pleasure to work with and nothing is too much trouble. Always guaranteed an amazing event

Pauline's business PAC are part of our team, always willing to go the extra mile. They have saved us money. They have saved us time. They know the new venues and have got us add-ons that have surprised us by including tea, coffee, and parking. They are easy to do business with because they are good listeners and can't be helpful enough. Most importantly, it's a pleasure.
