What Are You Giving For Lent?

Dear Friends,

There is a custom held by many Christians that Lent is a time for giving up, a time for sacrifice. Often it is the sacrifice of something very pleasant such as chocolate or deserts. I am not sure what is really accomplished by these acts for our souls. It may be a better way to look at the sacrifice of lent by linking it to giving something to make the world better.

At the end of Lent we remember Good Friday, where Jesus made his sacrifice for all who have lived in the past, in the present, and in the future. Through this sacrifice, Jesus gave to all the gift of eternal life, not based upon anything but the generous love of God. The gift is ours, all we have to do is to accept it and embrace its reality in our lives. The sacrifice of Christ was a gift of grace. So during Lent, what gift of grace are you going to give?

When Jesus was going to the cross, there was a choice. Jesus had options. Jesus did not have to accept the evil we had planned for him. He could have walked away at any time. While his tormentors where thinking they were mocking a dying man, they were actually telling the truth. Jesus could have left the cross at any time, he could have done it peacefully, or with force. It was always an option. They just happen to be options he did not choose. Their mocking would have stopped abruptly if Jesus would have opened their eyes to see the ten thousand angels just waiting his command to destroy the world and save their Christ. Instead Jesus chose to be obedient unto death, even the ugly death upon a cross, so that he could give us a gift: forgiveness for all the stupid unthinking things we do all the time. Jesus gave us a gift of grace.

The question for us is how can we emulate Jesus this lent and give the gift of grace to someone who may never deserve to receive it from us? This is a gift to our worst enemy that they may never know we have given them. This may be a gift to a perfect stranger who would never be able to repay us for our kindness. A gift of grace is an act of salvation to someone we see is struggling. A gift of grace that is an answer to prayers that only God has fully heard and understood.

Lent for Christians is a season of openness to the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives as we seek to perceive how God wants to use us. It is listening for God’s answer to our prayer, “Lord, not my will but your will be done.” You cannot do what you did last year because God may need use your gift to bless someone new. Is there a sin committed against you that you need to forgive not just in word but in deed? Is there a relationship that needs healing? Is someone angry with you, and it is not even your fault but theirs? For lent be like Jesus, tell them you are sorry. Take the blame. Forgive them for not understanding what they did. And open up a new opportunity for you both to live a new life.

Are there those who do not love you, who mock you, and wish you were dead. It may be the gracious act of sacrifice to step away from their lives. Be the one to take the animosity out of the situation. You may allow this death of your relationship so both of you may experience, the possibility of resurrection and new life. It may be a gift of grace.

“What are you giving for Lent?”

Is there someone who is all alone and needs someone to come into their life. Not just for a moment but for a life time. God might give you the gift of becoming that person, that gift of grace. Adoption into a family can be a powerful gift. It may be children who need a grandmother. It may be a young mother who needs a big sister. It may be a young man who needs a wise uncle, who could mentor and show the ropes. Could that gift of grace be you.

We never know the gift of grace we can be, until we take the chance and say to “God, here I am, send me.”

Blessings, Pastor Michael Johnson

Adult Sunday School class now focusing on Ephesians

Many Christians are spiritually starved because they ignore the spiritual “food” God has provided in the Bible. Why not join us to study God’s word joyfully in a small group together? In this Adult Sunday School class we often experience interesting discussions as we learn.

In March 2020, we are going verse-by-verse through the wonderful book of Ephesians.

We meet in the church parlor at 9 a.m. on Sunday mornings. We provide Bibles, or bring your own. We invite you to come!

Scripture of the Month

For March the special Scripture is:

Jesus asked, “For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves?”

Is it not the one at the table?

But I am among you as one who serves.”

Luke 22:27
