

Patchwork: a Storytelling Guild

Membership Application:

The members of Patchwork: A Storytelling Guild are dedicated to promoting awareness of storytelling as a vibrant contemporary art form, a folk tradition, a way of celebrating life, a tool for personal and social transformation, and as a path for spiritual exploration.

As a member of Patchwork, you will enjoy the following benefits:

- Participation in Story Coaching sessions (first session is free to people who are exploring to see if this is a good place for them to become more involved in storytelling)
- Listing on our website, including link to your own website, if desired
- Discount on your membership in the National Storytelling Network
- $5 discount on Tellabration tickets
- Messages from organizations that are seeking performing storytellers
