

TERRY JASINTO

'Music is the greatest gift and the greatest love'

When it comes to musical range and experience, there's not a lot of DJ/producers like Terry Jasinto making him one of the more in-demand DJs based out of Southern California. Terry's experience enables him to play a wide range of music while maintaining his unique essence and motif characterized by his patient and hypnotic mixing combined with impeccable taste in music.

- Sound as a DJ gently weaves between deep house, techno and progressive house.
- Terry's music productions consistently climbs charts and ranges from deep house to techno
- Produced two #1 tracks and has accumulated numerous top 10 releases
- Releases on some of the world's most renown underground labels from Flashmob Records, Viva Recordings, Stripped Digital Recordings, Open Bar Music and more..
- Versatility is why he's been featured with the world's most influential DJs such as Doc Martin, Deep Dish, Gene Farris and Harry Romero to name a few.

Terry can regularly be seen at his weekly residency Dance Klassique, one of the world's longest running weekly events for house music and at the West Coast's most popular venues and festivals.
