

A 40 Day
Writing
Journey

THE Overcomer's
PEN

Your Story. His Glory.

MAPHELIA ODETTE HANNAH

The Overcomer's Pen: Your Story. His Glory.

© 2025 by Maphelia Odette Hannah

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise—without prior written permission of the publisher, except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles or reviews.

Scripture quotations marked NKJV are taken from the New King James Version®. Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked MSG are from THE MESSAGE. Copyright © by Eugene H. Peterson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked TPT are from The Passion Translation. Copyright © 2017, 2018 by Passion & Fire Ministries, Inc. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked AMPC are from The Amplified Bible, Classic Edition. Copyright © 1954, 1958, 1962, 1964, 1965, 1987 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission.

Scripture quotations marked NLT, ESV, NIV, KJV will follow their standard copyright acknowledgments here.

Abraham's Ink Publishing House
ISBN: 979-8-9916534-7-3
First Edition: 2025

Printed in the United States of America

Welcome, Overcomer, to this sacred space where your story and God's glory meet. For 40 days, you will not only remember but also write—moving from reflection to testimony. Not every part of your life has been good, yet every part can be touched by God's goodness.

Your story matters—not because it makes you the hero, but because it reveals the faithfulness of the true Hero, Jesus Christ. Revelation 12:11 declares that we overcome “by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of our testimony.” The blood has already been shed. Now, the testimony must be told.

As your motivator, I will guide you. Joseph will model how to walk the broken road. David will mentor you in how to express lament, worship, and praise. And I will cheer you forward, reminding you that your pen is a weapon of faith.

Breathe deep, Overcomer. The next pages are not just for you—they are for those who will one day need your testimony.

With you in the journey,

A stylized, cursive handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Maphelia Odette'.

Maphelia Odette

www.mapheliaodette.com

Day 0: Ground Zero

“Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.” — Hebrews 12:2 NKJV

Before you write, begin with Jesus—the Alpha and Omega, the Author and Finisher of your story. Pain, betrayal, silence, or joy—He redeems it all when surrendered. Anchor your story in His, and let His glory frame every word.

A true testimony does not begin with me. It begins with Him—the Alpha and Omega, the One who wrote your beginning and holds your end. When you surrender your story to Him, He redeems what was lost, heals what was broken, and fills your pages with His glory.

Before you write a single word about your life, anchor your story in His. You are not writing alone. You are writing with the One who gave you breath, who walked through suffering for your redemption, and who now invites you to testify of His goodness.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, You are my Ground Zero. Lord Jesus, You are my Ground Zero. Be the beginning and end of my testimony. Touch every part of my life and write redemption across these pages. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Introduction

Every Overcomer has a testimony, and every testimony deserves a voice. This devotional will guide you through 40 days of uncovering where God has been faithful and shaping those memories into testimony.

This journey is paired with The Overcomer's Pen Journal. The devotional offers insight and guidance; the journal gives you space to practice. Together, they form one path: from raw memory to refined testimony.

Along the way, you will walk with three voices: Joseph, the Model, showing how broken roads lead to purpose. David, the Mentor, teaching honestly, lament, and worship. Me, Your Motivator, pushing you to keep the pen moving.

By the end, you won't just have read a book—you will have drafted the foundation of your testimony manuscript. One that glorifies God, strengthens faith, and overcomes the enemy by the word of your story.

So, don't just read. Write.
Don't just remember. Testify.
For your story is His glory.

How to Use This Book

Each day in The Overcomer's Pen follows a simple flow, designed to guide you from reflection into writing:

- Push — A devotional insight that nudges you forward, offering both encouragement and challenge to dig deeper.
- Passages — Scriptures that anchor your testimony in God's Word and remind you of His faithfulness.
- Partner Up — A prayer to align your heart with God as you process and write your story.
- Point — A writing tip that equips you with practical direction to strengthen how you tell your testimony.
- Prompt — A guided exercise that turns reflection into practice, helping you put your story into words.
- Pen It — A dedicated journal spread where Joseph models a response, David mentors with Scripture, I encourage as the Motivator, and you step into your role as the Messenger.

Together, these sections create a steady rhythm. Each day moves you from being stirred by the Word, to seeking God in prayer, to shaping your story, to writing it out with clarity and courage.

Day 1 – Why Your Story Matters

“They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.” — Revelation 12:11 (NKJV)

Push: Your story is more than memories—it is a weapon forged by God, helping us overcome. The blood of Jesus grounds our victory. The word of our testimony carries His triumph into the world. Without testimony, victory is silent; with it, victory reverberates throughout eternity.

God never wastes a moment of your life. He redeems your time behind the scenes, weaving every valley, mountain, detour, and broken place into a testimony that glorifies Him. Some parts of your story may feel too painful to revisit, too messy to expose, or too ordinary to matter. Yet when you surrender those places to Him, His power shines brightest because true testimony reveals His faithfulness through it all.

Just as every great story includes both conflict and resolution, so does testimony. Conflict shows your humanity; resolution reveals His divinity. So, love not your life by yielding every part of your story—even the chapters shadowed by shame—for what once condemned you now becomes the ground where grace and mercy stand. The enemy loses his grip, rendering him ineffective and inoperative, because you've surrendered it all to Christ, turning your story into worship and warfare.

When you share your testimony, you invite others to see God's fingerprints on your life. You open doors of living hope for those still waiting on breakthrough. You remind yourself—and anyone who listens—that what He did before, He can do again. So don't hold back. Your surrendered story declares: God was here. God was faithful. God still reigns forever.

Passages: Re 12:11; 2 Co 12:9; Ps 107:2; Is 43:21

Partner Up: Father, You are faithful. Help me to write my story for Your glory so that it may be a weapon of victory. Forgive me for doubting the worth of my journey. I surrender every page to You when I place it in Your hands. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Point: Autobiography says, "Here is my story." Testimony says, "Here is how God showed up." You are a character, but He is the hero. Every story has conflict and resolution, but in testimony, the climax is always where God intervenes.

Prompt: Take 15–20 minutes to write about one moment when you knew: "That was God." Where were you? What were you facing? How did you feel? What changed when He stepped in?

Pen It: Write about one moment you knew, "That was God."

Your Model, Joseph's Pen:

When my brothers stood before me, I should have burned with bitterness. The memory of the pit and the chains pressed against my chest. Yet in that moment, I saw God's hand. He had been weaving good from every betrayal. What I once called loss became the stage for His glory. That was God.

"Testimony is memory with purpose. Don't just recall it—record it. What you write today can feed tomorrow's faith."

[illegible]

~ Your Mentor, King David (Psalm 103:2 NKJV)

The Overcomer's Pen: Your Story. His Glory.

Next Steps: Preorder Today

This is just the beginning. You've tasted the rhythm of reflection, prayer, and writing, but 39 more days await you. Each one guides you deeper into uncovering God's fingerprints on your life and shapes your story into a testimony that glorifies Him.

Don't stop here. Your story is still unfolding, and your pen still carries the power to declare His faithfulness. Keep pressing forward. Keep writing. Keep testifying.

The Overcomer's Pen: Your Story. His Glory. releases on December 1, 2025.

Preorder today and be among the first to walk the full 40-day journey into breakthrough.

Reserve your copy today at www.abrahamsinkph.com

THE Overcomer's PEN

Your Story. His Glory.

Your story matters. His glory deserves the ink.

The Overcomer's Pen is a 40-day writing journey that helps you uncover, shape, and share your testimony with clarity and courage. Each day offers Scripture, reflection, prayer, and prompts to move your words from memory into ministry.

Whether for personal healing or public sharing, this devotional will help you write with honesty, hope, and holy confidence—turning your testimony into a lasting gift for others.

This is your story, for His glory.
It's time to pick up the pen.

Maphelia Odette

is a writer, worshipper, and steady pursuer of God's heart. Through words and worship, she invites others into a deeper journey of surrender and becoming. She serves as the host of The Overcomer's Journey, encouraging believers to walk faithfully, live surrendered, and pursue the One who calls them onward.

ISBN 979-6-9916534-7-3

9 798991 653473