Building Healthy Families: "Be careful little ears what you hear, Be careful little mouth what you say, Be careful little hands what you touch, Be careful little feet where you go..." These words are lyrics to a Sunday School song that reminded us as children to make wise decisions. As adults, it's still important (perhaps more so) to "be careful" about what we hear, say, touch and where we go. Choose wisely this week! Lutheran Family Service - www.LutheranFamilyService.org.

Life Thought in the Church Year for September 26 – Pentecost XVIII (Proper 21B): Decisions about manner and timing of death—either our own or anyone else's—are difficult and dangerous. We cannot anticipate all its effects and consequences. Our Lord relieves us from playing God by reserving for Himself the right to determine how human beings live and when we die (Psalm 104:29-30). And He assures us that we may flee the likes of abortion and assisted suicide by taking refuge in His kingdom of forgiveness and faith (Mark 9:43-47).
