Building Healthy Families: In her book, "The Power of a Positive Mom," Karol Ladd notes the importance of intentionally planning for summer activities with your children. She suggests making a large poster with "The Summer of 2022" written across the top. Invite your kids to join you in making a list of fun activities you want to do over the next two months. Also include some summer rules, like how much television and screen time will be allowed, what chores will be required and how late is too late to sleep in. A little planning will help you enjoy these months off and avoid that regretful September statement, "Where did the summer go?" Lutheran Family Service - www.LutheranFamilyService.org.

A Life Thought in the Church Year for June 5 – Pentecost: The builders of Babel tried to grasp God's power and prestige for themselves. Their selfishness delivered only division. Physician-assisted suicide, embryo-destroying biotechnologies, and abortion also attempt to exercise God's authority over life and death. But keeping the Word of the Lord—including the encouragement to love even the least of our neighbors—brings people together (Acts 2:9-11) and receives Gospel peace (John 16:23, 27).
