Building Healthy Families: In our world of 24/7 news cycles, on every hour of any given day we hear bad news and know we can do nothing about most of it. It's overwhelming. As a result, a lot more people are experiencing anxiety. Here are three things you can do this week that will make a difference: 1) give someone the gift of your time. Visit someone who is lonely or afraid. Listen to their concerns and share encouraging words; 2) remind them (and yourself) that God is still on His throne, and Jesus is still seated at His right-hand, aware of all that is happening and actively involved in daily events; and finally, 3) take a "news" vacation by turning off the TV for a week. The world will go on and you'll feel much better! Lutheran Family Service - www.LutheranFamilyService.org.

A Life Thought in the Church Year for September 11 – Pentecost XIV

(Proper 19): Our culture discriminates based on size, skills, and circumstances in order to make abortion and assisted suicide possible. But our Lord and God has a soft spot, a definite preference for the feeble (Ezekiel 34:16), the insignificant (Luke 15:8-10), and the failures (1 Timothy 1:15). If it gladdens Him to save such as us, won't it also enrapture us to advocate the sanctity of every life?
