Building Healthy Families: Martin Luther encouraged Christians to remember their baptism each time they washed their face or bathed. He wrote, "In baptism, our sinful selves are drowned, and day by day a new self arises." As we celebrate Reformation Day and reflect on its meaning this week, take time to thank God for the gift of your baptism and remind your children and grandchildren of the promises God made to them through theirs. Happy Reformation Day from your friends at Lutheran Family Service! www.LutheranFamilyService.org Lutheran Family Service

A Life Thought in the Church Year for October 25 – Reformation Day: Our freedom from slavery to sin comes through the Son of God being nailed to a tree (John 8). The righteousness of God has come to us by faith. This sets us free from sin and also sets us free to love God and love our neighbors. The life we have from God, we live for the benefit of others (Romans 3). In so doing, we give glory to God for all that He has done for us (Revelation 14).

CHRIST FOR YOU this week on KFUO AM850 & kfuo.org: Tune in for "There Is a Redeemer", our study of the book of Job on Sharper Iron (weekdays at 8 a.m. CT)! On Thy Strong Word (weekdays at 11 a.m. CT), we're wrapping up our study of Paul's letters to the Corinthians. Follow along as we pick up with 2 Corinthians 11. On Concord Matters (10/31 at 10 a.m. CT), Pastor Finnern and Rev. Dennis McFadden will be discussing Article 4 of the Epitome of the Formula of Concord, on good works. Where do our good works originate? Find your favorite programs on demand by visiting kfuo.org!

Scripture: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind... You shall love your neighbor as yourself." — Matthew 22:37, 39

Stewardship Sentence: True stewardship is faith active in love, devoting all that we are to loving God and generously serving our neighbors.
