(THOUSAND OAKS, CA, February 4, 2024) – In collaboration with the American Association of University Women-Thousand Oaks Branch, the Thousand Oaks Library, and Friends of the Thousand Oaks Library a presentation by Los Angeles Times writer Mona Gable will take place on Sunday, February 4th at 2pm at the Grant Brimhall Library Community Room.

Searching for Savanna: The Murder of One Native American Woman and the Violence Against the Many, is according to Simon and Schuster is “...a gripping and illuminating investigation into the disappearance of Savanna LaFontaine-Greywind when she was eight months pregnant, highlighting the shocking epidemic of violence against Native American women in America and the societal ramifications of government inaction.”

A well-researched by the author who has indigenous roots this story compelled her to document the lack of focus on this issue. Join us as we delve into Savanna’s story on Sunday, February 4th at 2pm at the Grant Brimhall Library. The author will be available to sign books at the end of the event. Cash or check only. For more information email sjhibbitts@aol.com.
