

Ventura County Interbranch Council Annual Luncheon

The First Amendment
Saturday, January 24, 2026
11:30am-2:00pm

Lunch and program: $40 per person
Los Robles Greens, Thousand Oaks

Across the nation, the boundaries of free speech are being tested. From challenges facing journalism, higher education, and peaceful protest to debates over academic freedom and viewpoint diversity, questions about the First Amendment are taking on new urgency. How can we make sense of these shifts and protect the core freedoms that sustain a democratic society?

This year's IBC luncheon will tackle these questions head on with a panel led by:

Brandy Price J.D., Dean & Chief Academic Officer at the The Colleges of Law in Ventura and Santa Barbara.

Panelists include:
College of Law Professors Eric Lane and Judge Brian Hill and College of Law Students Allison Wooten and Massimo Genovese.

Join us for an in-depth discussion with legal experts in our community.

Purchase tickets at www.aauwthousandoaks.com

Checks may be sent to AAUW - Thousand Oaks Branch
P.O. Box 4223 Thousand Oaks, CA 91359