

HOW CAN YOU HELP MEANINGFUL ALIMONY REFORM BECOME A REALITY?

This list is also available on our website at <http://www.floridafamilylawreformpac.org/>

1. Donate to Florida Family Law Reform PAC. We need your support to have an impact!

It is imperative that we educate our lawmakers and the public in general what is wrong with our alimony laws. Therefore, items 2 – 9 involve work, but are extremely necessary!

2. Volunteer and help organize our Legislative Committee. Email Michael McAuliffe, chair of our legislative committee, with your contact information or just fill out the linked form. We need groups of 2-10 people to visit their legislators and tell their stories to them!
3. Submit your alimony story to us. Giving your name is recommended, but optional. This will be part of an e-book that we will share with legislators.
4. Submit a one to two minute video just like those already on our YouTube Channel:
5. Every time a press release or news article about alimony in Florida comes out, it is essential that you comment on the article. You can have a “standard” comment that you save on your computer desktop to make it easier. By commenting in favor of reform, you let the journalists know that this issue is important to many people. Journalists need to understand there are many of us in favor of new laws. Set up Google Alerts for “Alimony Reform” or follow our Facebook page which will post the relevant articles!
6. Make noise on our Facebook page. Comment on everything. Invite your friends to like our page. This is how I was noticed by the Time Magazine reporter that interviewed me and lots of other women in South Florida.
7. “Friend” your local legislators on Facebook (or like their pages) and send them messages. Send them tweets on Twitter. If you don’t know who represents you, look them up!
