Agawam St. Patrick's 2025 Colleen Coronation

Application

Official Application

The purpose of the Agawam St. Patrick's Colleen Pageant is to promote a sense of spirit in the Irish community and Irish awareness to all. The Colleen must be present at: The Colleen Gathering, the Holyoke St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Agawam Memorial Day Parade. She will also attend events and functions throughout the "Irish Season." It is a fun and exciting experience, as well as a great honor for the Colleen and her Court. Commitment to your Irish heritage is an important factor in the section process. Applications are due on December 20th. Abbie Fiore, President and Colleen Mom, will contact you to let you know that we have received your application as well as any updates that we will have.

Please attach a resume and current wallet sized photo.

Please fill out the attached forms.

Important Dates:

The Bill Pfau Cultural Award Essay

 (Mandatory)

Please attach a 200- 300 word essay about a person of Irish descent, either living or deceased, who has made a significant difference in your life, during their lifetime. This may be someone you know or have known, or a public figure. You may choose to write about anyone, as long as they are of Irish descent.

The winning essay will be selected by the Pfau family prior to the Colleen Coronation and read at the 2026 Colleen Coronation.

William Pfau was a founding member of the Agawam St. Patrick's Committee. The award winner will also march in the Holyoke St. Patrick's Day Parade and be invited to all of our events for the remainder of the year. Only Colleen Applicants are eligible to enter The Bill Pfau Cultural Award Contest.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Abbie Fiore either by phone or text at 413-285-5220 or email agawamstpatricks317@gmail.com.

Essays can be mailed or emailed with the Colleen Application.
