Mary, Mother of Priests, pray for them!

Por favor, tengan presentes en sus oraciones a nuestros seminaristas mientras se preparan para regresar a sus estudios y continuar discerniendo su vocación al sacerdocio.

"You Are Peter."

Today in the Gospel reading, Jesus asked His disciples who people thought that He was.

Everybody seemed to think He was someone special, but none of them knew who He really was.

When Jesus asked the disciples themselves who they thought He was, Simon said that He was "the Christ, the Son of the living God!" Simon only knew this because God had put it into his mind.

When Simon had said this, Jesus said that his name would now be Peter, which means rock, and that on this rock He would build His Church.

He made Simon Peter the first pope. He also said that the gates of Hell would not prevail against the Church. Jesus was assuring us that He would always protect the Church from error.

Now whenever the pope, or the bishops who are agreeing with the pope, proclaim something about God, we know that they are right. Jesus gave the teaching authority to Peter, and he passed it down to the bishops through all the centuries until now. Isn't that pretty amazing?

Who do you say that I am?

You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.

Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood have not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father.

What were Peter and Jesus saying in today's Gospel reading?
