Voters NEED TO KNOW:

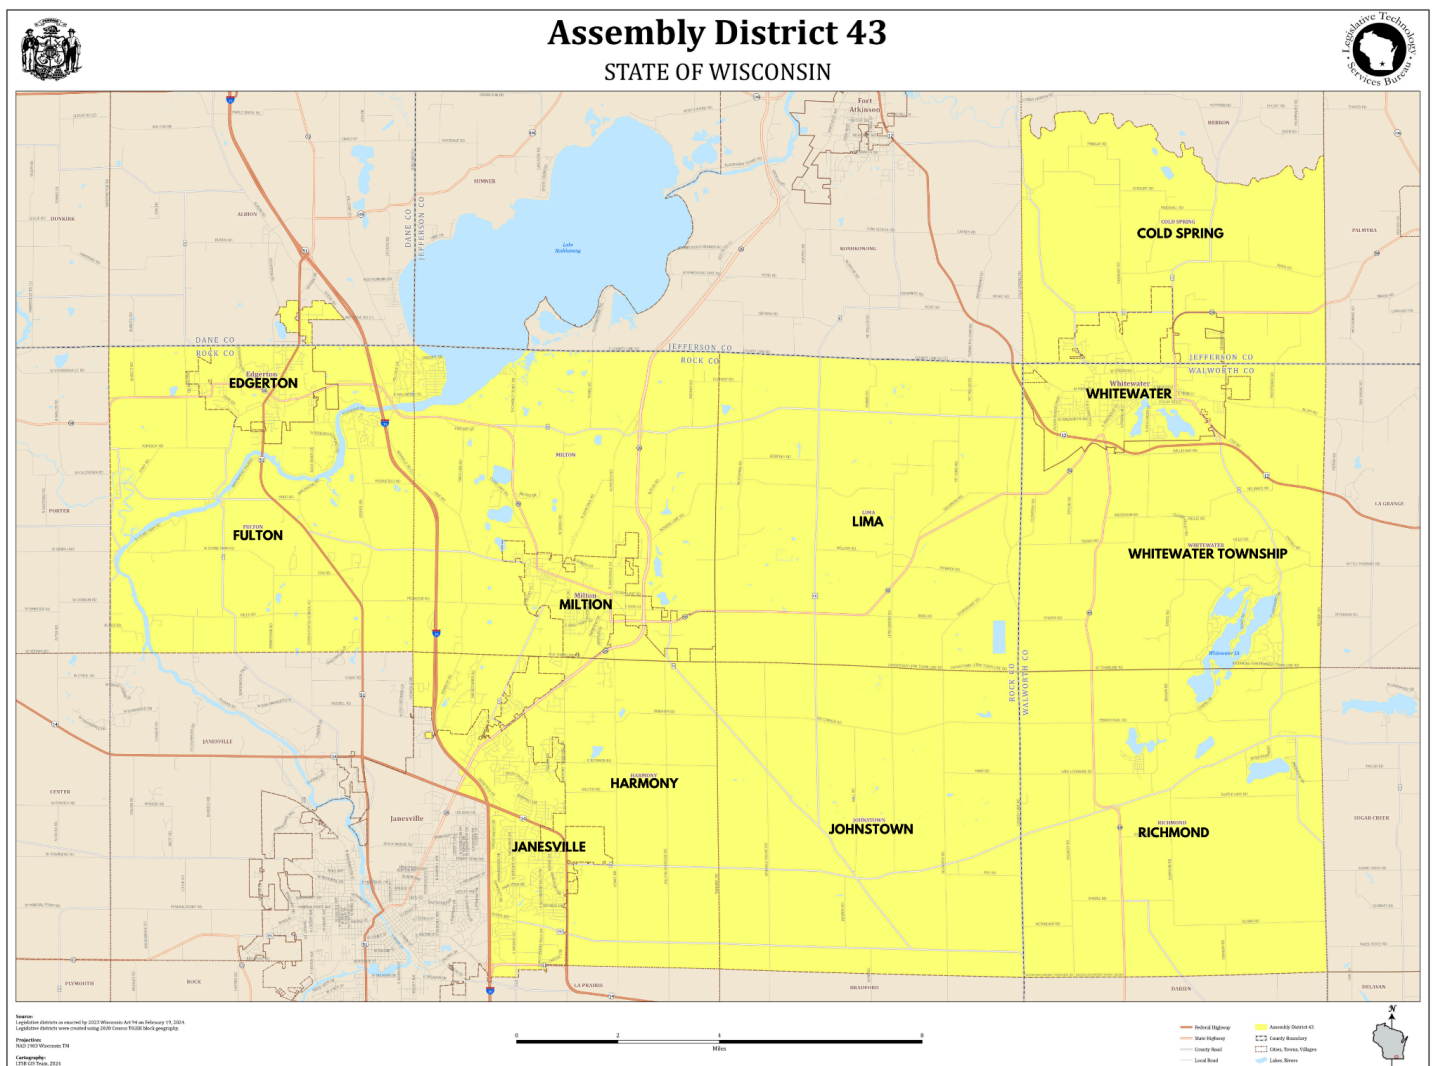

ATTENTION: VOTE AUGUST 13

* The Wisconsin Primary election will be August 13. Since Brienne does not have a primary opponent, her name will not appear on the ballot. However – Democrats should still turn out to vote to stop the MAGA power grab by voting NO on two constitutional amendments that are an attempt to strip the governor’s authority – Learn more from the League of Women Voters: <https://my.lwv.org/wisconsin/august-2024-constitutional-amendments>

ASSEMBLY DISTRICT 43

Not sure if you live in Brienne’s district due to the new FAIR MAPS? Two ways to check:

- 1) Look at this interactive district map on Brienne’s website.
- 2) Check myvote.wi.gov – Scroll to the footer in red at the bottom and click on “Find My Elected Officials”. Type in your address and look for your Assembly District. Go 43!

Brienne's Recent Campaign Activity

Evansville Dairy Breakfast with friend and future Assembly colleague, Representative Clinton Anderson, who represents the 45th Assembly District of Wisconsin.

Whitewater Senior Listening Session - with special guest Delavan Mayor Ryan Schroeder.

Over thirty guests in attendance had the opportunity to speak with Brienne and Ryan about their concerns and learn more about how elected officials can address them.

Whitewater House Party, hosted by Jenny Rule, founder of the Whitewater area Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America. Guests heard from AD43 candidate Brienne Brown (right), AD46 candidate Joan Fitzgerald (left), and Representative Deb Andraca, AD 23 (middle). All three are former Moms Demand Action volunteers and leaders. The occasion was so special that Channel 3000 from Madison covered it! See Channel 3000 story here.

At a lovely Milton House Party hosted by Mary Ellen and Bill O'Leary, Brienne was able to introduce herself to many Milton area voters. Connections were made and plans forged – what a special night!
