Freedom Virginia Endorses Russet Perry for Virginia State Senate

“Virginians deserve a fighter like Russet.”

LEESBURG, VA – Today Russet Perry for Virginia State Senate announced an endorsement from Freedom Virginia, a nonpartisan 501(c)4 organization committed to building a Commonwealth where all Virginia families have the freedom to thrive.

“Virginians deserve a fighter like Russet,” said Rhena Hicks, executive director of Freedom Virginia. “Russet is a champion for economic freedom who will always put hardworking Virginians first, not corporate special interests. We are proud to support Russet and look forward to seeing her become a powerful voice for affordability, both in Loudoun County and the Commonwealth.”

As a former CIA officer and prosecutor in the Loudoun County Commonwealth’s Attorney’s office, Perry is a dedicated public servant. Growing up economically disadvantaged made her passionate about issues surrounding the cost of living, families being able to put food on the table, having access to affordable health care, and the necessity for excellent and safe public schools with well paid public school teachers.

“I am so grateful for the endorsement of Freedom Virginia,” said Russet Perry, candidate for SD-31. “As a mom I understand what Virginia families need from the General Assembly: kitchen table policies like establishing a higher minimum wage, universal paid sick leave, and at least 12 weeks of paid family and medical leave. It’s time to make affordability a priority in Virginia.”
