VoteVets PAC Endorses Russet Perry

Russet Perry is the first ever national security professional to be endorsed by VoteVets PAC for state-level office

LEESBURG, VA – Today, Russet Perry, former CIA officer and Loudoun County Prosecutor, announced the endorsement of VoteVets PAC in her race for State Senate District 31. She is the first ever national security professional to be endorsed by the organization for a state-level office.

“Russet Perry has committed her life to service - to her community as a prosecutor, to her country as a CIA officer, and now to serve as their State Senator,” said Jon Soltz, Iraq War Veteran and Chairman of VoteVets. “She has spent her career delivering results for her community and her country, and she will continue to do so in Richmond. We are proud to put our support behind her.”

“I am incredibly honored and humbled by the support of VoteVets PAC,” said Russet Perry. “As the daughter of two public school teachers, service was instilled in me my whole life, and I consider it a privilege to dedicate my life to being a public servant - as a CIA officer, as a prosecutor, and now running for State Senate. I can’t wait to continue the work to focus on the people in my district and deliver results for my community in Richmond.”
