Russet Perry for Virginia Senate Raises Over $100,000 in 2022

LEESBURG, VA – Since declaring her candidacy to the State Senate in late October, former prosecutor and CIA officer Russet Perry announced that her campaign raised $106,013 to close 2022, five times more than that of her primary opponent.

“Our campaign is powered by an army of individuals who are ready to see more of their Democratic values in Richmond,” said Russet Perry. “It’s humbling to have them standing with me and our campaign. And it’s because of their support that we’re going to take the fight for women’s reproductive freedom, for good paying jobs, curbing gun violence, a world-class education for our children, and for the natural beauty of the Commonwealth straight to the Capitol.”

Russet Perry is a former prosecutor and CIA officer. Having worked under both Democratic and Republican administrations at both the CIA and the Commonwealth’s Attorney’s office, Russet is running for the Virginia State Senate to continue her long record of service to our community. Perry is endorsed by Majority Leader Dick Saslaw, Senate Democratic Caucus Chair Mamie Locke, Senate President pro-tempore Louise Lucas, Senators Janet Howell, Scott Survoell, Jennifer Boysko, John Bell, Barbara Favola, Adam Ebbin and Delegate Suhas Subramanyam.
