Governor Ralph Northam Endorses Russet Perry for Virginia Senate
Perry campaign builds momentum after successful first fundraising filing

LEESBURG, VA – Today, former prosecutor and CIA officer Russet Perry announced the endorsement of Governor Ralph Northam for her campaign to the Virginia State Senate. This comes on the heels of a successful fundraising filing. Perry filed with over $100,000 raised among some of the top fundraisers in the Commonwealth.

“Whether being a voice for those who need it the most at the Commonwealth’s Attorney’s office or fighting for our democracy at the CIA, Russet has a track record of service all Virginians can be proud of,” said Governor Ralph Northam. “Now, more than ever, we need those same qualities in whom we elect to serve in office. That’s why I am proud to endorse Russet Perry and her campaign for the Virginia Senate. Russet will be a champion for Virginians everywhere and is uniquely qualified to serve in Richmond.”

“It’s truly an honor to receive the endorsement of Governor Northam,” said Russet Perry. “Governor Northam helped to spearhead landmark change in the Commonwealth, including common sense gun safety legislation and protecting a woman’s right to choose, and Virginians from all walks of life are better off for it. I look forward to working with everyone in Richmond to stand up for Loudoun and Fauquier counties in the General Assembly.”

Russet Perry is a former prosecutor and CIA officer. Having worked under both Democratic and Republican administrations at both the CIA and the Commonwealth’s Attorney’s office, Russet is running for the Virginia State Senate to continue her long record of service to our community. Perry is endorsed by Majority Leader Dick Saslaw, Senate Democratic Caucus Chair Mamie Locke, Senate President pro-tempore Louise Lucas, Senators Janet Howell, Scott Survoell, Jennifer Boysko, John Bell, Barbara Favola, Adam Ebbin and Delegate Suhas Subramanyam.
