Senator Creigh Deeds Endorses Russet Perry for State Senate

LEESBURG, VA – Russet Perry, former prosecutor and CIA officer, announced the endorsement of Senator Creigh Deeds.

“Russet Perry is a committed public servant, and I value her leadership in establishing a mental health docket and prioritizing crisis intervention training in the community,” said Senator Deeds. “She will bring a much-needed voice to Richmond, and I look forward to working with her in the Senate to improve our behavioral health system.”

“I admire the work Senator Deeds has done for the Commonwealth, and am grateful to have the support of a champion of mental health,” Russet Perry said. “As a prosecutor I worked to establish the mental health docket, prioritized crisis intervention training, and taught red flag laws to law enforcement. I have seen firsthand the positive impact these programs have on individuals and our community at large. I look forward to joining Senator Deeds as another strong voice for mental health in Richmond.”
