Class of 1995

All Through!!!

The year was 1991. Forty-one students hesitantly entered the high school wing of the school for the first time as freshmen. As they worried about remembering their new locker combinations and if they could get their schedules straight, upperclassmen walked past them as if nothing was new. The fourteen-year-olds were experiencing many special "firsts" that would be remembered for a long time.

A great number of things happened that year for many of us freshmen. Many of us were struggling with the adjustment to new College Preparatory/Business/Tech.

Prep. courses we were taking. People got such nicknames as "Mel Rebel," "McMuffin," "Four-Barrel," "Duck," "Quakerstate/Mushroom," "Stew," and "Muhammad." Andy's famous saying, "CLANT!" became a household word. Barbie won first prize at various horse shows. Winter Carnival brought us the first of two consecutive sportsmanship awards. Whenever we had to endure hardships, we always got through it together.

1992 brought us to our Sophomore year. This was a year where it was "good to be bad!" New nicknames such as "Ansel Adams," "Alligator," "Donut," "Ping," "Goose," "Bun," "Waldo," "Hector," "Old-Fashioned," and "My Little Pony" could be frequently heard in the hallways. Most of us were enthusiastic about receiving our brand new class rings. Chad M. joined a rock band and Barbie, Jen V., and Kristin made All-Aroostook, and the boys' basketball team made the tournament. The cheerleaders had their first competition as well. Jen and Jer were the first class couple to last a long time. Many of us got confirmed. On stage, Shannon, Jen V., Mel R., and Jesse made their debut performance in "Nan's Diner," while Andy worked quietly backstage. "Pac-Nyacs," as they were called, loved to cause trouble everywhere. Another famous quote that could often be heard on the basketball court was, "Practice your shot and you'll be hot!" And still, we remained together.

As Juniors, we spent a lot of our time at the L'arc en Ciel. "Rrrraarr!" was often used as a warning when someone was in a bad mood. Karen and Scott were and still are our class couple. Our famous peer ed. trip, where Eric almost burned down Shannon's summer home,

Ourselves Through It All

Oftentimes throughout the years, we've found ourselves wondering, maybe even worrying about what others think of us. It's only human for people to form ideas and/or judgements about each other.

Well, the Senior votes are in, and you can finally stop wondering, because here is what they've been thinking about you.

home. With Mr. Cyr's videos and tons of worksheets, we got through SAT's. Carrie, Carrie was constantly told to "shave it." The prom was a great deal of work, but in the end, it was all worth it. Co-Ed Naked T-shirts became the hottest trend as did dance music. Barbie's imitations of Beevis and Butthead could make a roomful of gloomy people weep with laughter. Jeremy made the All-East team in soccer. Warnings came in to stay off the road whenever someone got their license. A few of us became aunts and uncles. Losing winter carnival by only 7 points was no big deal for us, seeing as how we had the best sculpture. "The Burning Fountain" was talked about for weeks. "Hey Al!" and "Ruby Dube" was heard every day for months. The loss of one of our classmates, Sara, put a damper on our moods for a while. At the end of the year, Troy moved to Madawaska and Jesse decided to go to college a year earlier in Arkansas. We also lost Melissa's car. But, still, we did it all together.

Now, we are Seniors. New nicknames can be heard in the halls, such as "Sou-Baratte" and "Frey." Amy T., Jen V., Karen, Chad, and Scott got their braces off. Carrie's famous interrupting cow jokes seemed to be the corniest of them all, while Jen was noted for always saying, "I'm cute, take me home!" Tina got into an accident, and is lucky to be with us today. Tammy's "bateau" was replaced by a new Taurus. In Advanced Biology class, we were able to live with sea animals for a while. Chad H. and Karen became "pregnant" for a day. Eric made All-East for soccer, and Amy L. made All-Valley. Many of us have finished looking for colleges and figured our other postgraduate plans, while others are still undecided. Graduation is just around the corner. We know that soon, we will be going our separate ways. No matter what we all decide to pursue, however, we know that we will be in each other's hearts for eternity because we've done it all, through thick and thin.

'95's Last Wills

Seeing as the class of '95 has so much to give, we obviously can't take it all with us, so we've decided to leave a little of it behind. And here are our last wills and testaments.....

I, Cory Albert, of sound, mind, and body, leave: Dwayne Dumais, the memories of all the good times in town and the parties of '94; Jeff, the ditch, the garage, and the 4-wheeler rides; Randy Marquis, the long talks at Jessie's and the rides in Fort Kent; Scott Corriveau, "Get off and push!"; my parents, all the headaches.

I, Eric Bouchard, leave my friends: Tammy, a lifetime supply of film and a camera; Scott, a rubber duck to take a bath with; Carrie, my back so she can scratch it and an extra big closet for all her clothes; Jill Michaud, a snowmobile that she can handle that doesn't look like a boat; Jen L., another kid, which equals 8 in all; Renae, a new car to replace the "Rabbit"; Amy L., a new helmet so she doesn't have to wear the "Big Red"; Jeremy, a big number 99 to remind him of the best hockey player that ever lived, Wayne Gretsky; Jessie, the complete "My Little Pony" collection; Mel Roy, a gadget to close her mouth when she talks too much; Barbie, an 8 x 10 picture of Mr. Rotella and a Calculus book.

I, Tina Bouchard, leave: Melisa, my house for parties and all our heart-to-heart talks; Christy, Lafontaine and alligator shoes; Jen V., rain and daisies; Nae, "Cent milles a l'heures" and all the guys at Tech.; Barbie, a "bastard" child and Psych. class; Carrie, a hiding place for everyone at the Yacht; Mom and Dad, all my love; all my classmates, the key to hell.

I, Carrie Chasse, leave: Tina Bouchard, Hector Morin; Mel Roy, A-1 and spamburger; Amy, my matching p-j's; Renae, "good tunes"; Jen, going out and my philosophy on life "happiness"; Jill, "I smell Chinese"; Jeremy, my 1-800-information number and Carrie, Carrie; Eric, a back scratcher and herman; Barbie, Pierre to dirty dance with; to the girls, and you know who you are I leave the many border runs and the Saturdays at L'arc. Memories NOW and FOREVER.

I, Monica Corriveau, leave: my parents and sisters, all my love; Shane and Elisha, all the toys in the world; my boyfriend, the future with me; Jeff and Kevin, the night at the movies and the day we went 4-wheeling; all the teachers, all the hard times I gave them; my classmates, the best of luck in the world.

I, Scott Corriveau, leave: Jeff P., all my snowmobile parts so he can fix his and my watergun; Brad O., all the speakers I have; Kevin Dube, all the Mon Copain memories; Mr. Staple's radiator, and a step-by-step "How to Get a Girl" book; Chad Morneau, all the memories of good parties; Karen, my truck so she can learn how to drive standard and all my love.

I, Scott Cyr, leave: Andy, a lifetime supply of mold and mildew remover; Eric, a package of donuts; Jeremy, all my leftover notebooks; Jessie, a Celtics jersey so he always remembers who's best; Carrie, a telephone; Tammy, a camera and an L.A. Kings puck; Jesse Pettengill, a good set of tires so he won't get stuck in the mud anymore; the class of '95, all the memories we shared as we grew up together.

I, Jason Dube, leave: Monica Corriveau, my green silk shirt; Miss Perreault, my computer teacher, my winter jacket and a ticket to Florida; Scott Cyr, a lifetime supply of napkins.

I, Kevin Dube, of sound mind leave: Jeff, my waterbed and the wonderful words of "Get out of the car now!"; Scott Corriveau, memories of a rolled up dollar at Mon Copain and a tug of war with Walt's truck, almost going side by side with Carla's house; Randy M., my empty bottles, memories of Mon Copain and 11th avenue, snowbank, the siren; Monica, the night at the movies and memories of melting the snow; my parents, the phone calls from Mr. Bouchard, invitations to school they got, and an extra vacation he gave me.

I, Glen Gagnon leave: Wisdom High School very prepared for college, and I had the greatest time of my life here with my friends and teachers. I also leave: Coach Deschaine, my jumping ability and many sprained ankles; Mr. Boynton, my ability to make four-foot paper airplanes; Mrs. Lerman, my ability to type this will; my classmates, who I enjoyed being with for so long: CLASS OF '95 IS UNBEATABLE!

I, Jennifer Lacourse, leave: Jeremy Dugal, a little yellow rain hat and all my love; Carrie, the twenty-first letter of the alphabet and a lifetime supply of cheese; Amy L., a "free-spirit" ride to Florida and Bruno's allowance; Renae L., a gift certificate to Mary Kay (the one I never used) and the Iroquois tribe to which she belongs; Barbie O., the snowbank on MY side of the driveway and a pair of new glasses; Mel R., pieces of _____'s broken heart and some white-out for your mattress; Eric, Channel 64 and a Soloflex to keep your back muscles cut; my family, all my love forever.

I, Stuart Fongemie, leave: Jeff, my elementary experiences of fighting; Chad M., his "Soubarratte"; Scott Corriveau, the memories of Mrs. Labbe's class near the coat rack; my class, all the memories of ME.

I, Amy Lerman, leave: Carrie, a taillight for pepere's four-wheeler; Jen L., a plane ticket to Florida; Renae, Tequil Sunrise (orange juice); Eric, Chicken pox; Jeremy, a Fat's Domino piano; the basketball team, a season supply of lipgloss and lotion; Jill and Lena, a car to get to school; the class of '95, all our wonderful memories; Craig, ALL MY LOVE!! XXOO

I, Shannon Lugdon, upon graduation, leave: Mrs. Labbe, hugs; Mr. Cyr, No-Doz; Doug, an extra 5 minutes a day; Mom and Dad, the hope that one day your other children are more like me; my siblings, all the enlightening experiences to be had while attending Wisdom; the drama club, my heart; and my soul, to the only person it could ever belong to, M.D.

I, Andy Marquis, leave: anything that anyone wishes to claim.

I, Randy Marquis, of sound body and mind leave: Cory A., all the nights we talked while he was working and his BTO tape; my parents, my empty pockets; Kevin D., the "old blue Chevy" and the snowbank on 11th ave, the still, the siren, and all the night-outs we had in the summer of 1994.

I, Cheryl Michaud, leave: Tracy Corriveau, a "lunch box" and T.O.P.; Maleka Michaud, a cigarette and whoever she likes; my sister, my camping gear and my friendship; my brother, an argument and a lot of fun to go with in life; my parents, all the snow for ski-doo and my love.

I, Melissa Michaud, leave this place with just one regret: that I can't bring Dana with me. So, to him, I leave my love, my heart, all my thoughts, and a few great memories. I also leave: Kristin, Tammy, Candy, Jennie, Amy T., "the Group," and the Drama people my friendship; the B-ball team, your scorebooks; my parents and my sister, my love and thanks; to everybody else.....ha-ha.....!

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Comic Margaret Cho stars in the first all-Asian sitcom "All-American Girl," about a college girl who's not making enough money to move away from home and has to live with her rigidly traditional Korean immigrant parents.

The animals aren't cuddly, but Disney's 32nd animated feature The Lion King is still a box-office smash and a sure classic. The story of a young lion, Simba, on the path to maturity combines five Tim Rice/Elton John songs with comedy that leaves audiences roaring. Just say "Hakuna matata," Swahili for "no worries."

Class Of 1996

"Follow Through..."

The Junior Class has been through many things this year. Most of us have our licenses and a car by now, along with the job to pay for it. Now we have more responsibilities, and it will take some getting used to. We've all changed throughout the year in our own little ways, some for the better, and some for the worse. We still have work to do to bond as a class, but you just wait, we'll be back and better than ever next year!

Class of 1998

"Coming Through..."

The class of '98 consists of 36 hard-working students. As we entered Middle School, the expressions of some people were "uh oh", but as many can see, we have proven ourselves as a class full of stamina and talent.

It being our first year of high school, which involves many changes, we have once again proven ourselves. With new rules and systems due to block scheduling and a new principal, like other classes, we have all adjusted well because of our great characteristics. Our class is filled with artistic, athletic, intelligent and attentive people. When the going gets tough, we always find ourselves pulling together for support which is difficult for a class of our size.

What will happen in our later high school years, no one knows for sure, but we all know that our class is not one to give up. Many see future architects, actors/actresses, lawyers, and doctors coming out of our class.

We have all shared many great memories together including our "exciting trip to Augusta", and it is certain that we will share many more throughout high school.

Through It All

We dedicate this year's Pioneer Yearbook to Mr. Paul J. Bouchard and Mr. Lawrence Dumond for their hard work and dedication to the students of Wisdom High School.

Before becoming the principal of our school on October 21, 1974, Mr. Bouchard was employed as an Industrial Arts teacher at Presque Isle High School. Mr. Bouchard has given MSAD #33 twenty of the most productive years of his life. As a result of his unselfish dedication Wisdom High continued to evolve through good and bad times. Mr. Bouchard is not a quitter. Thank you seems much too little for all he has given, but that is limitation of our language, not our feelings.

Mr. Lawrence (Larry) Dumont entered the teaching profession in July of 1957 and taught school for one year at Fort Kent. In the fall of 1958, Mr. Dumont taught school in Madawaska until 1966. In 1966, he was employed by MSAD #33 where he taught in the business program until his retirement in the spring of 1995. In all, Mr. Dumont has been an educator for 38 years! Wow! What do we say to a guy who has given the very best part of his life to the advancement of our young people? Again, thank you falls way short of the mark. So, let us simply leave you, Mr. Dumont, with our sincere wishes for a long, healthy, and productive retirement. You're quite a guy!

Mr. Michaud, The New Leader

Lester Michaud has been a teacher in the S.A.D.#33 school system for 18 years, first at Dr. Levesque Elementary School, and then at Wisdom when the "junior high" grades moved "up". At Wisdom, Mr. Michaud taught math and science in the 7th and 8th grades, photography for high school students, served as advisor for the Pioneer Yearbook, and as Gifted and Talented co-ordinator for the Challenger program.

When Mr. Michaud became principal, the "School of Choice", as it was called, became the students', and with it came their share of the responsibility to run it, respect it, and take care of it. Thanks to Mr. Michaud for giving us a new view of our school. As Mr. Michaud always tells us,

Pep Rally

Held before the first home basketball game of the season, the pep rally is a chance for students to get fired up and encourage the teams, and for each class to show their enthusiasm and school spirit. Students and staff participated in a unique obstacle course and planned skits to demonstrate their spirit, led by the cheerleaders and our Pioneer, with music by the Pioneer Band.

Pictured above are members of the junior class. Below, middle, are the senior class and the sophomores. Below left, is the freshman class, and at right is an awesome pyramid performed by the seventh grade.

Induction of new members took place on November 22, 1995

Wisdom Pioneer Chorus

All-Aroostook Music Festival

All-State Band
Jill F. Michaud (pictured at left) was selected to All-State Band on clarinet this year. Originally a tenor sax player, Jill switched to clarinet only last summer. Jill is only the second Wisdom student to make All-State, and, as she is only a freshman, is highly likely to participate in this festival again. Congratulations, Jill!

WISDOM DRAMA CLUB

An evening of three one-act plays was presented in March by the Wisdom Drama Club. At upper right, Jessica Dumont, Chris Lowe and Aaron Michaud perform in "Steak Night", a play about family power struggles. Bottom right, are Debra Lowe, Shelly Chasse, Loni Sirois, and Seb White in "The Ten Pound Sack", the middle-school play.

Above and at middle right are shown scenes from this year's competition play entitled "The Guest From Ambition" by Doug Clapp. At the District Competition, Jennifer Violette and Jill F. Michaud were selected for All-Festival Cast, and Andy Marquis received a special award for set design.

"The Sea Comes to the Classroom"

This year's Advanced Biology class of seniors participated in "The Sea Comes to the Classroom," a project that was formed to teach students more about marine life. Each of the fourteen seniors research and then learned how to handle their specific animal, and then did a presentation for the Junior high and Elementary students. Animals that were presented include oysters, clams, scallops, clams, sand dollars, several different kinds of crabs, lobsters, sea stars, sea urchins, and sea cucumbers. The younger students seemed to especially enjoy the sea cucumber that might "spit out its guts" and the scallops that kept spitting water out at its handler.

Soirée Bilingue

A Bilingual Evening was held at Wisdom on May 15. Master of Ceremonies was Mrs. Diane Landry. Special guests included Senator Judy Paradis and "Les Jeunes Chanteurs Acadiens" under the direction of Martha Michaud and Lisa Bernier. Mrs. Cleo Ouellette introduced students who took part in an essay contest entitled "What Bilingualism Means To Me". Dave Raymond showed posters students had made of their family coats-of-arms, and Andie Labbe spoke about the geneological research reports being done as a class project by her middle-school students using the computerized Acadian Geneological data. Louise Cyr recounted a trip to Montreal taken by her Advanced Biology Class under the auspices of the Bilingual Program, while Doreen Paradis spoke of activities in her middle-school science classes.

WINTER CARNIVAL '95

"Pioneer Polar Party"

The first Thursday and Friday following February vacation was a great time for excitement. It was time for the annual Winter Carnival. This year the elected theme of this special event was "Pioneer Polar Party." Winter Carnival is a two day period of time in which students are excused from classes to participate in the several activities that take place. These activities include song, snow sculpture, posters, French and English poems, three-legged race, speed skating, the egg toss, and many other indoor, outdoor and skating events. It is a competition between the four high school classes, each being led by the advisor who has been with their class all year long. At the end of this is a dance in which the songs are presented, the winners are announced, and a king and queen are crowned. This year's king was Chad Morneault, and the queen was Amy Lerman. The song competition ended in a big surprise: the Freshman won! Snow sculpture was won by the Seniors. The best French poem writer this year was senior Scott Cyr, and best English poem writer was senior Tammy Morneault. The overall winners of this year's winter carnival was the senior class, who were very happy, since this was the first that the class had won. All in all, this year's events were a big success.

The senior Advanced Biology class of fourteen students took a class trip to Montreal to learn the advantages of bilingualism, different cultures, and to see the botanical gardens and insectarium. Advisors to this group were Mrs. Louise Cyr, Mr. Conrad Cyr, Mr. Dave Raymond, and Mr. Greg Ouellette. A major disappointment to the group was that they were unable to go to the insectarium and the Biodome. The group spent three days and two nights in the beautiful city and learned a great deal. All sides agreed that the trip was well worth it.

To the right is senior Andy Marquis and art and drama director, Doug Clapp, in the sound and lighting booth in the Wisdom cafeteria, preparing for a play. Andy was the recipient of the set award at the drama festival in Caribou. Wisdom's drama crew is well known for their well-built, quickly put together sets. This is the second year in a row Wisdom has won this award.

Student Life

The 1995 senior picnic was held June 4, and all the class and their parents were invited. For this occasion, two cakes were made by the parents. One is shown below. Hot dogs, hamburgers, and several salads were also served. The Rubber Band entertained the group, even letting Andy Marquis join them to sing "Mr. Jones" for the class. All this was preceded by the announcement of the senior superlatives. All this was followed with a game of volleyball, students against the parents. The night was very enjoyable for all concerned.

On the last day of school, it was decided that Mr. Dumond's homeroom, room 10, needed a picture together before leaving it for good. The Vocational students in this homeroom are not shown because by the time the picture was taken, they had already left for the technical school. Pictured are Eric Bouchard, Scott Cyr, Ken Roy, Jen Lacourse, Melissa Michaud, Kristin Olmsted, Amy Lerman, and Mr. Lawrence Dumond.

Yearbook Staff

Designing this year's 1995 yearbook was no easy task for the down-sized, 4-member group of senior girls, along with their new, patient advisor, Mrs. Sue Olmsted, deliberated over the countless decisions that the publication required. There was a lot to learn and many experiments were performed. The stubborn computer was constantly causing trouble, and the mouse was uncontrollable, often resulting in bouts of "mouse aerobics." In the end, however, the yearbook was completed and many hours of sleep were retrieved. It was a great experience that will be remembered for many years to come.

Honors Banquet

The 12th Annual Honor's Banquet was held on May 17th of this year. It began with a social in the cafeteria at 5:30 p.m. followed by a prayer recited by Jennifer Lacourse. The delicious dinner was served at 6:00 p.m. When everyone was through eating, Tammy Morneault welcomed everyone and introduced Mr. Lester Michaud and Mr. Lloyd Soucie who made the honor presentations. Special awards were given out. It was a great and memorable evening, filled with inspirational wishes for success in the future. Many thanks go out to the M.S.A.D. #33 Educational Association and the National Honor Society for sponsoring the event. Congratulations goes out to the following students for a job well done: Eric Bouchard, Monica Corriveau, Scott Cyr, Jeremy Dugal, Jen Lacourse, Renae Lavoie, Shannon Lugdon, Andy Marquis, Tammy Morneault, Barbie Ouellette, Karen Roy, Amy Tardif, Brenda Bernard, Tina Gervais, Jill McGlaughlin, Michelle Ouellette, Tammy Blanchette, Lena Chamberland, Matthew Deschaine, Nicole Gagnon, Robbie Lavoie, Kim Michaud, Danielle Paradis, Shawn Thibeault, Chad Bouchard, Trisha Cyr, Jody Daigle, Nathan Deschaine, Corey Fongemie, Cristina Guerrette, Tracy Guerrette, Adam Levesque, Jill F. Michaud, Jessica Paradis, Becky Pelletier, Christie Sirois, Andy Soucy, and Eric Soucy.

Each year Mrs. Labbe's 7th grade class reads Jack London's well-known tale of Buck who becomes a sled dog in Alaska. For the past 5 years, each class has been able to see and learn about a real dog sled team and maybe even get a ride. The team belongs to Kristin Olmsted and her family. Each year, Kris comes into the classroom to explain about harnesses, lines and the sled and how to act around the dogs. A few students are asked to help handle the dogs, which includes walking on a leash, harnessing, helping turn the team, and unharnessing. This year the sled team consisted of Steele and Akita, lead dogs; Suds and Scooter, point dogs; and Kato and Akela, wheel dogs. Handlers were Damienne Olmsted, Aaron Michaud and Daisy Mueller, high school students; Courtney Lugdon, Jamie Bouchard and Kristy Dubois, 7th graders; and Mrs. Sue Olmsted.
