Deep

Gratitude . . .

Reverend Father Donald Proulx

Your devotion, guidance and enduring interest in the students during your short stay at Saint Agatha have been an inspiration to us. Your teaching has made us appreciate the value of a Christian education. We shall strive to live according to the principles you have tried to instill into our hearts, and we shall endeavor to follow the examples you have set for us. We thank you, Reverend Father.

FRESHMEN

A long new candle waits to probe the darkness of knowledge.

Freshman Officers

President Arlene Chamberland, Secretary Glenda Martin, Treasurer Mona Thibeault, Vice President Marie Martin.

V. President Rita Corriveau, President Ann Paradis, Secretary Joyce Saucier, Treasurer Simone Gervais.

Enthusiasm Shuffled With

Precision is the key to success . . . Freshmen in the General Science class: Alethea Pelletier, Juanita Landry, Glenda Martin, Muriel Belanger, Patricia Ouellette, Gilda Paradis, Anne Marie Dube, and Bernette Michaud.

"Just open your mouth a little wider, Robert. You've almost got it," beams Sr. Mary Bernard.

The three-minute break can cause quite a confusion, especially to the people involved!

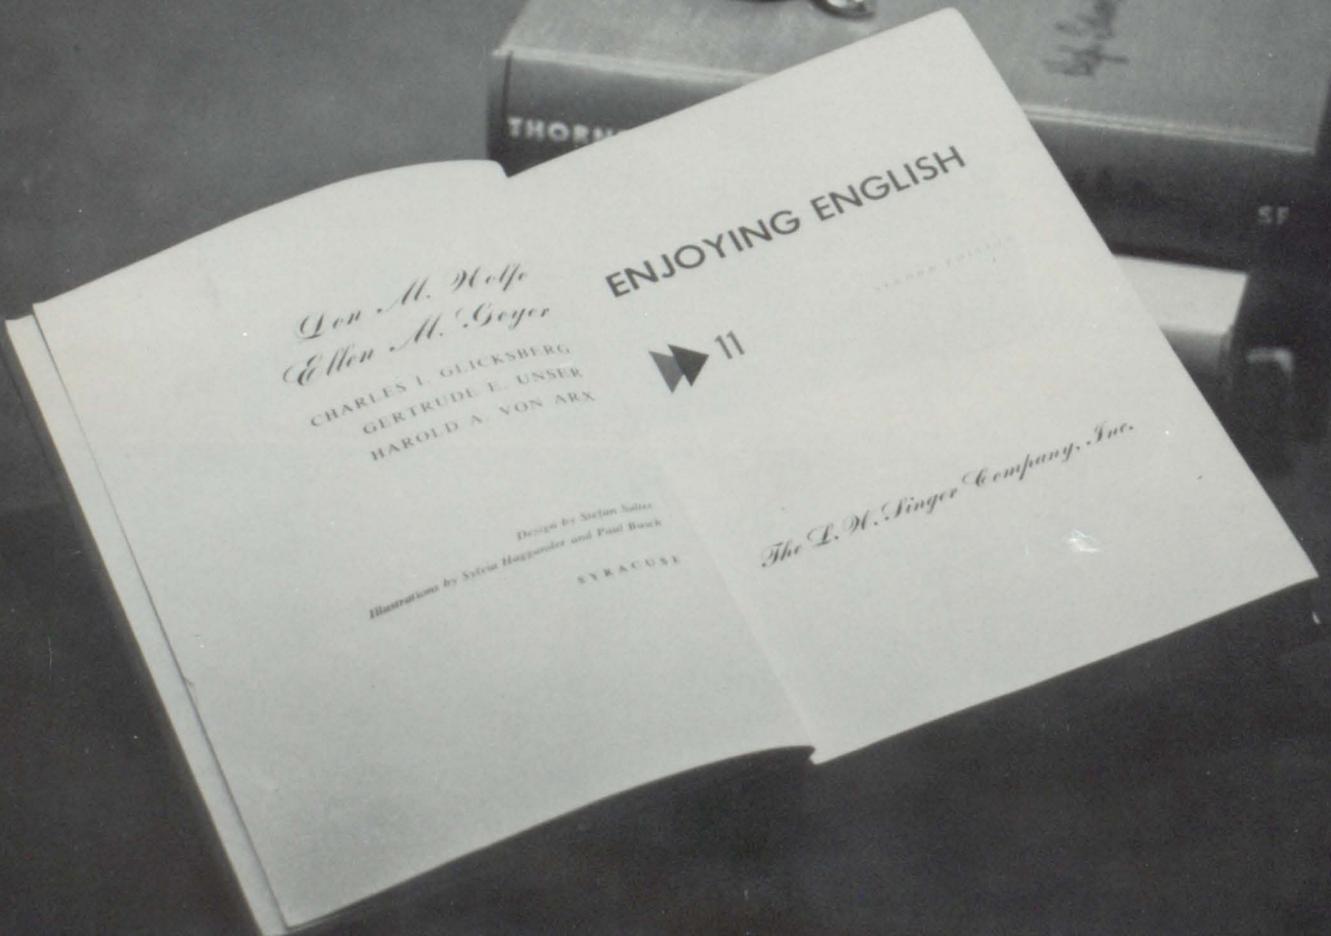

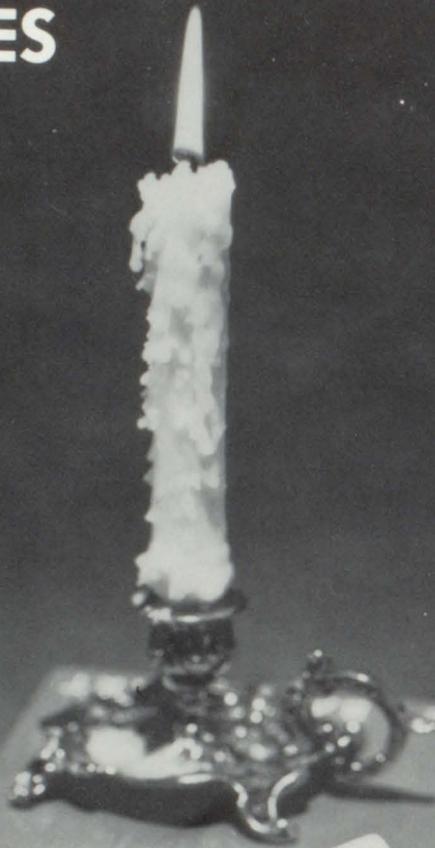

Inexperience

Numbers and letters keep the Freshman class at work. Irene Paradis, Paula Mae Rioux, Sister Bernard, Francis Chasse.

Searching for the Light

Biology captivates the interest of these members of the Sophomore Class; Gerard Plourde, Joan Guerrette, Roger Ouellette and Anita Paradis.

Roland Caron seems mystified as to why this one finger won't move.

"And it's this little place that's causing all the trouble?" exclaims Percy Thibeault to Jeannette Moro and Bernadette Michaud.

REPORT CARD DAY

A time when a student's hard work shows dividends.

"Vive la France!" exclaims Sister Michael to some rather doubtful French students.

Chapter 3 THE BEGINNINGS IN THE UNITED STATES

The early American government which grew into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being as at the close of some political negotiation. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1,300 miles along the Atlantic sea-board.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to look out their own way of life in the New World. For they came here in search of greater freedom Founding Fathers at Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. Rather it has developed through long centuries of experience, tradition, thought and deed. We shall now review the first steps of these beginnings.

The Colonial Period John and they brought with them political ideas which were the beginning of a new system of government. They brought with them the spirit of a new world, a new way of life, a new way of thinking, a new way of doing things. They brought with them the ideas of freedom, of equality, of justice, of peace, of order, of law, of government.

1.1 The Town Councils of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. They brought with them, too, the twin ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, their government is not all powerful, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the sense of which are to be found today—county, township, jury, sheriff, coroner, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well-known in England long before the first English man ever landed in America.

1.2 The Town Councils of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. They brought with them, too, the twin ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, their government is not all powerful, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the sense that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

1.3 The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Junior 1—Secretary Joan Michaud is making the absence list while President Christine Deschaine and Vice President Philip Morneau are scoring the class fund for future Class Day activities and Treasurer Thomas Chasse is balancing the school lunch money.

Junior 11 officers are planning Class Day events. L to R.: Treasurer Donna Chalou, President Gilman Ouelette, Vice President Mona Guerrette, and Secretary Ronald Daigle.

Urgency of Time

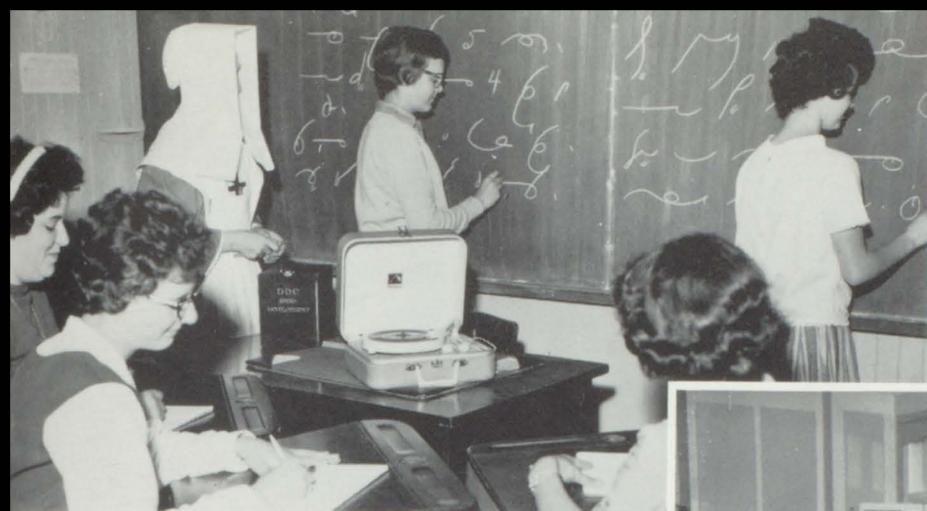

U.S. History Class makes the students aware of present day problems and trains them to help solve those of tomorrow.

Liquids, gases and solids all have become familiar elements to the Junior Chemistry Students.

In the Commercial Room Sister Gilbert Mary conducts a Shorthand Class. At the board are Claudette Michaud and Jacqueline Hebert. L to R are Marie Jeanne Corriveau, Pearlina Roy, and Joan Michaud.

Machine work, typing and filing keep the boys busy during their Clerical Practice Class.

Increases Efficiency

Quis es tu? Yes, this is the Latin 11 Class. Ruth Anne Cyr seems to find translation easy work. Daniel Labrie, Alice Ann Ouellette and Gerard Morin are equally interested.

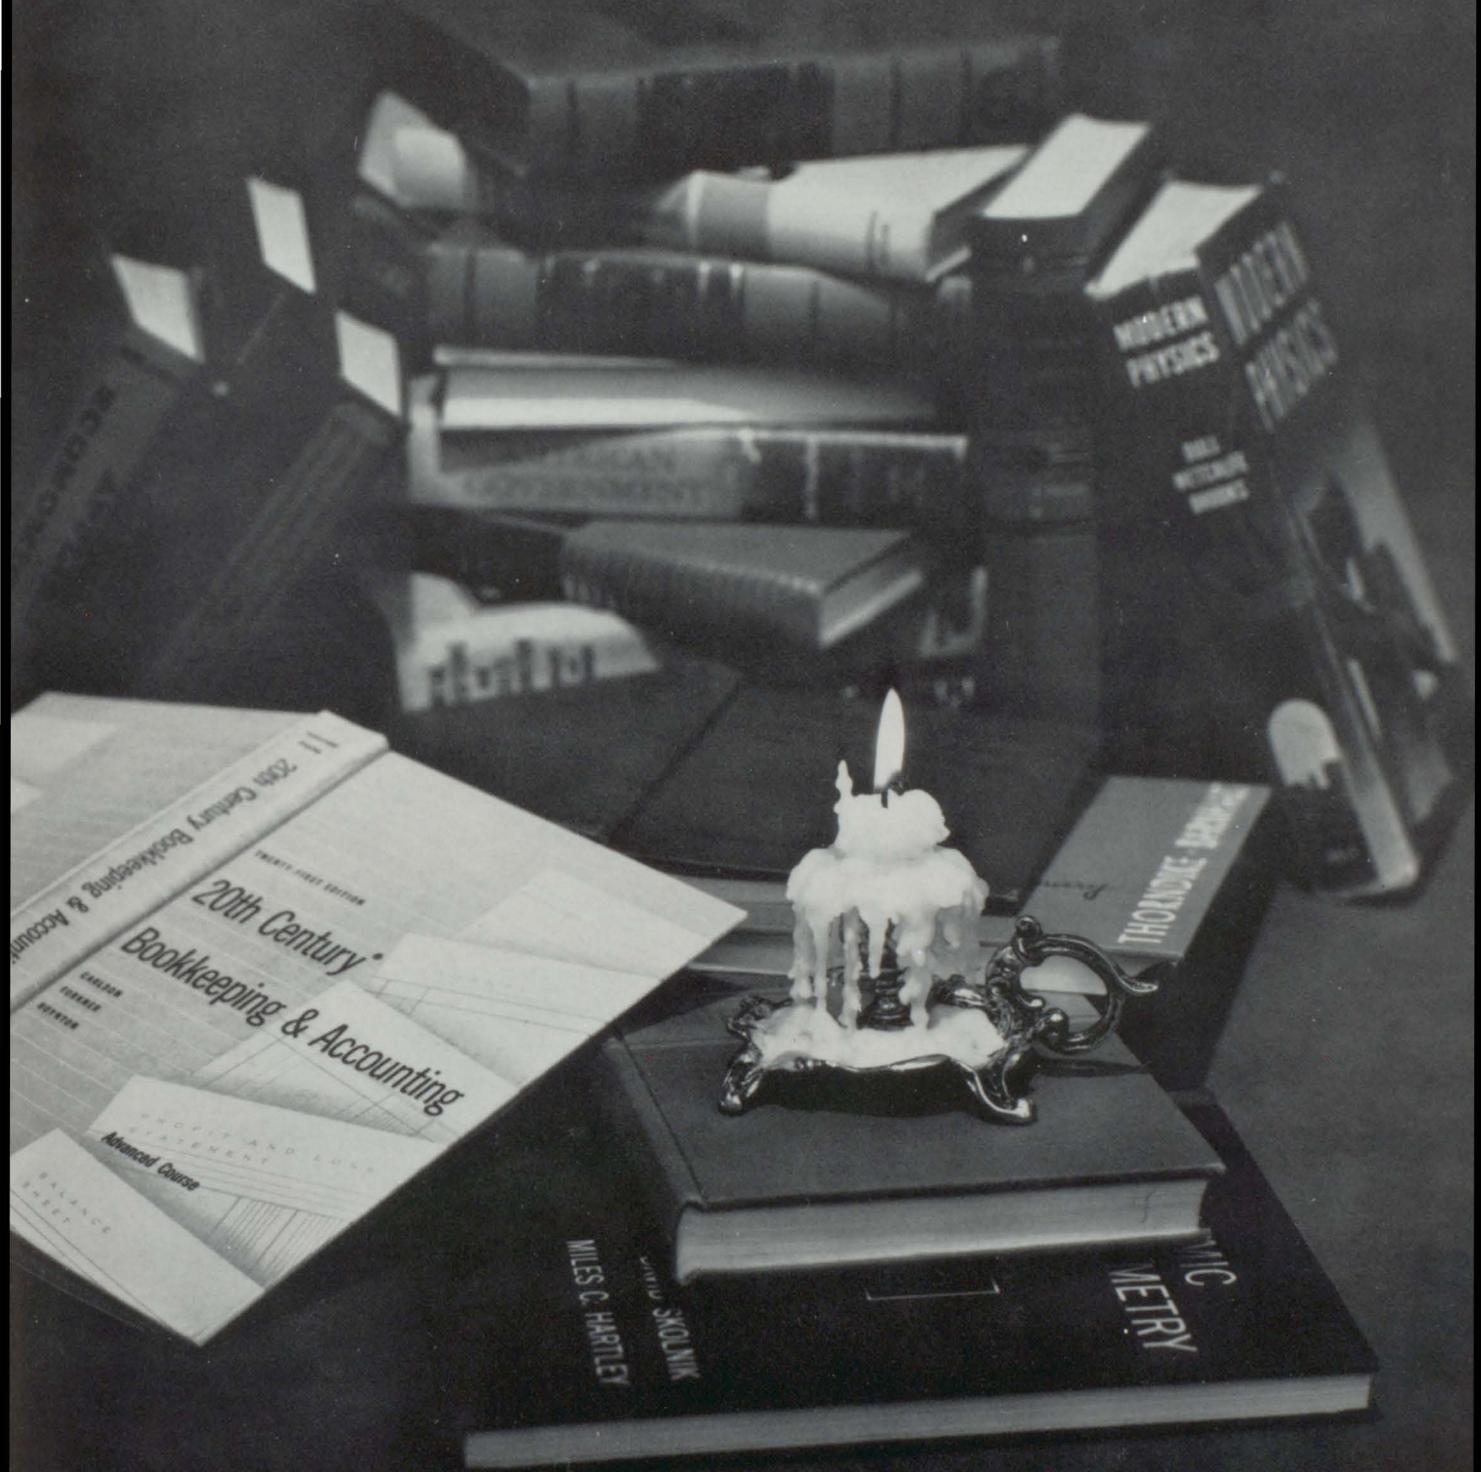

"But, Gerard," Pat insists, "X can't equal five if the equation is $X^2 + X - 42 = 0$."

SENIORS

Long to be remembered in the Senior Garden of Memories are, L to R: Lorraine Parent, President, Louise Bouchard, Treasurer, Martha Saucier, Secretary, and Alice Collins, Vice President.

Heirs of a Golden

BUSINESS SITUATIONS

"Won't you be seated? I'll be with you in just a minute," says Regina Guerrette to applicant Lorraine Ouellette.

"Do you have a high school diploma?" Employer Ronald Guerrette interviews applicant Jacqueline Bouchard.

Camille Albert has the important role of dictating to his private secretary, Helen Paradis, while typist, Diane Labrie, brings in a finished copy.

Education

Senior College students are getting acquainted with some of the mysteries of Physics. L. to R.: Alice Collins, Alice Caron, Luc Cyr, Patrick Collins, Martha Saucier, Louise Bouchard and Lorraine Parent.

"What's the answer, girls?" asks Luc Cyr in Algebra 2 class to puzzled classmates Lorraine Parent and Martha Saucier.
