

A flaming streak has long appeared
To paint the sky as daylight neared.
The sun at dawn comes into view
To leave behind — to start anew.

As it travels its heavenly way,
The zenith at noon it reaches each day.
In splendid array and glory it stands
To give the world light, as God demands.

Then having fulfilled its task at best
It slowly descends to take its rest.
And thus from the sun a lesson too:
Our lives should be lived as bright and true.

Dedication

It is an honor to pay tribute to one who has dedicated forty-one years of her life to St. Agatha Schools. Her tireless energy, cheerfulness, and patience will long be remembered. As head of the Commercial Department in the High School for twenty-nine years, she has prepared scores of students for successful business careers.

In appreciation, we, the Seniors, dedicate our 1964 Stag to Sister Christine de Marie.

Our Pastor

REVEREND ALBERT LONG

Despite the numerous duties that fill his busy days, Reverend Father Long still finds time for C.Y.O. meetings, Marriage courses, words of advice to students, and attendance at school activities. For his unstinted devotion and kind encouragement, we are grateful.

Gracing the Class Day Banquet were our guests, Mr. J. Raymond Brennick, Father Gilbert, Father Long, and Mr. Patrick Babin.

Class Day's central attraction, a silver chandelier, is admired by enchanted onlookers.

Day

The graduation march is mimicked by Juniors. Raymond Dumais and Joseph Collins bang out "Pomp & Circumstance."

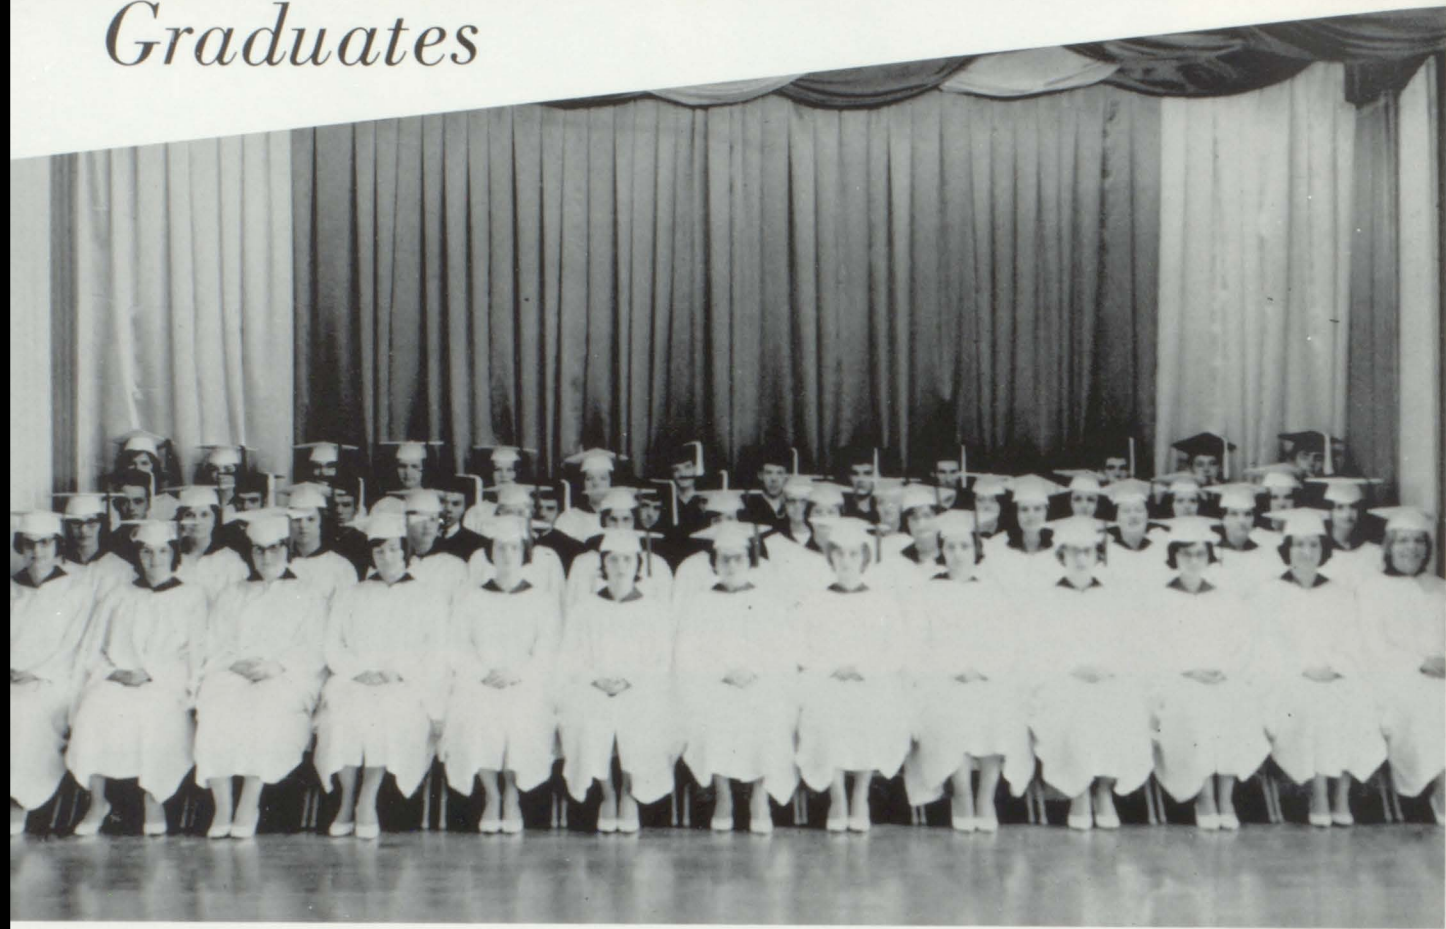

Philip Chamberland (alias Santa Albert) is receiving his diploma from Carl Michaud, Superintendent (Mr. Brennick)

"Don't end up as jerks" sings the entire Class Day Cast, the Juniors!

Graduates

Graduation on Wednesday, June 10, climaxed four years of hard work for the Seniors of 1964.

SALUTATORIAN, Joel Michaud, introduced the Graduation Theme — "Understanding — Path to Peace."

VALEDICTORIAN, Marilyn Collins, spoke of "Love — Key to Understanding."

Not the Sunset

"Service — Key to Understanding," was Honor Essayist, Constance Desjardin's theme.

The thrill of graduation night! Jacqueline Paradis joyfully accepts her diploma from Mr. Brennick.

C.Y.O. officers are awarded honors at graduation by Rev. Father Long.
L. to r. Arlene Chamberland, Roland Chasse, Father Long, and Marilyn Collins.

But the Dawn

Tense moments become softened as Sister Catherine pins corsage on Lorraine Morin.

Surrounding the Statue of St. L. M. de Montfort, the 1964 Graduates prepare to meet the world.

THANK YOU TO OUR AD SELLERS! Doreen Pelletier, Bertha Milliard, Ann Paradis, Madeleine St. Jean, Joan Ouellette, Constance Boucher, Julie Bouchard, Julie Bourgoin, Cyrilla Pelletier, Doria Chamberlain, Barbara Lavoie, Marie Helen Sirois, Dorothy Derosier, Kathleen Collin, Juanita Landry, Patricia Michaud, and Karen Pelletier.
