Forever Wisdom High

*From Wisdom we've gained a priceless heritage -
Peace, Truth and Brotherhood;
Its spirit enflames our searching hearts and minds,
Becoming stronger day by day.*

*To Wisdom we pledge a living loyalty
And promise to uphold
The ideals we've learned from strong and guiding minds
That lead us on to higher goals . . .*

*God grant that she may
Ever form us in truth,
Bestow the sure peace
Found in straight minded youth.
We'll stand firm beside her
And show the world that we've learned
To live, to love, to serve as brothers,
Forever Wisdom High!*

SISTER CATHERINE of the Cross

The Seniors of Wisdom High School wish to dedicate this Memory Book to a person who is herself dedicated--our principal, Sister Catherine. In her we see the living illustration of our class motto: "That we may glorify our God and live to serve mankind." Besides possessing a genius for remarkable efficiency, Sister has a natural gift for understanding students, that has endeared her to Saint Agatha High School for twenty-one years. As the first graduates of the new Wisdom High School, we hope that our lives may ever reflect her spirit of service.

“ . . . Peace, Truth and Brotherhood.”

Mr. J. R. Brennick, superintendent and his secretary Miss M. Bard.

As Freshmen we remember . . .

...that terrible initiation. Poor Rose, Anita and Karen.

...and the Christmas Play. Remember Hans the shoemaker?

...how general science floored us. Some catch, Chi Chi!

...sneaking in to see the Dutch theme of Class Day.

In Sophomore Year . . .

Remember the fun we had on the Trapp family trip.

We'll always remember those angelic faces at Yule tide.

Remember old Black Joe and those cotton fields back home.

Doctor Zorba told his patient that she had "a-cute" appendicitis.

Junior Memories were special . . .

...with Father Lester at a class Baptism.

...as Goldwater and L. B. J. crept into our lively debates.

...and exciting too, when we received our class ring.

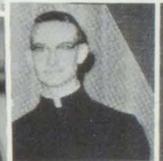

The winter Carnival trophy was the highlight of our hard work and wonderful class spirit.

Remember the South Sea cruise on the SS Seniors '65!

MEMORIES on PARADE

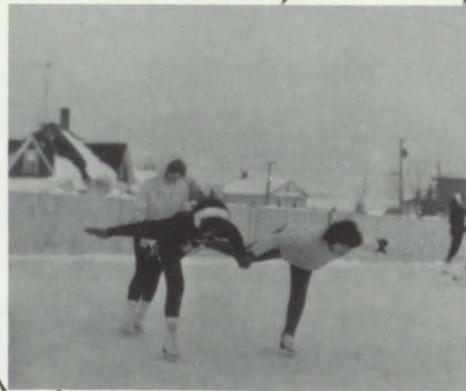

An Unforgettable Year As Seniors . . .

Our Royal Court - Queen Linda Crockett and King Lester Michaud.

There go the Senior boys off to win the one hundred yard dash.

Janet, Gayle, and Frances were good enough to join the ice follies.

Lester and Rachel made a perfect Cinderella and Prince.

The Prince introduces his bride to his parents Queen Linda and King Michael.

We're on the march, Hurrah!

We're out to win, Hooray!

The winners show their "stuff" helping Sr. Catherine

Activities ran high and then . . .

We'll never forget the good spirit shown by our faculty at our Hootenanny.

Mr. Scarecrow was among the many who enjoyed the Granny Dance.

Miss Witch and her beau are on their way to the Halloween Ball.

There's James our star basketball player. Hurray James!

Peggy, Cinnie, Linda, and Lester won these trophies at the Northern Aroostook League Speech Festival there was

Come on, James, you can't trick this judge and jury!

Remember the day we received our portraits? Not bad!

a time

for thinking . . .

We were all inspired by this year's closed retreat and enjoyed the friendship of Fr. Sal.

Senior Classes . . .

The hi-light of P.O.D. classes was the discussions on world problems.

The new home ec lab and Miss Cyr made our Senior Special class "Special." Here she teaches us to apply make-up. Having fun - Cecile?

Expert Senior typists perform for a real pro, Sr. Gilbert Mary.

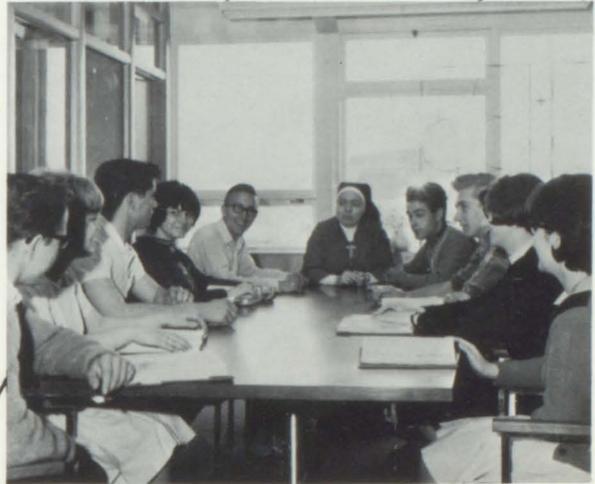

Smiling faces show that we girls always enjoyed folk dancing during gym.

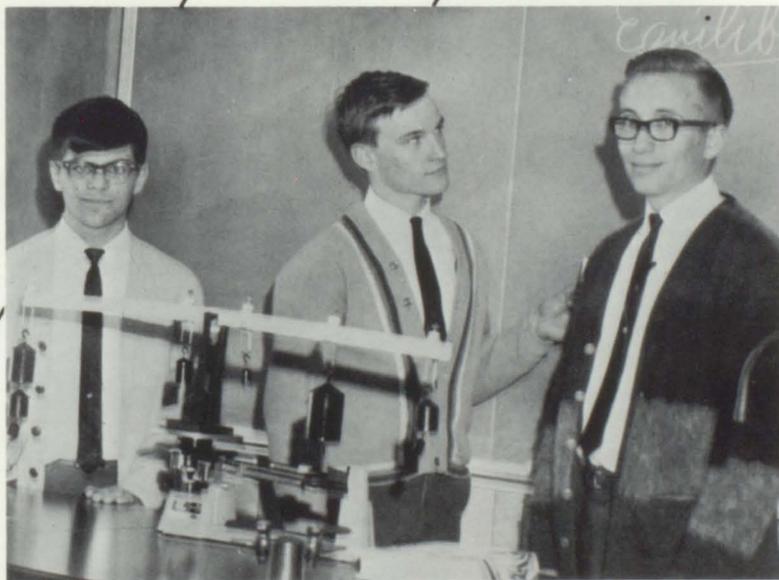

In our new school . . .

"There are no idle hands in the Clerical Practice workshop," says Sr. Christine.

Edward sees the light as James unhesitatingly explains the epic poem "Beowulf."

Hey Boys, are you unbalanced??? Physics is always a challenge.

Clubs

The Library Council enjoys a round table discussion with new facilities.

The Council officers are: President - Lester Michaud, Vice-President - Cyrilla Pelletier, Secretary-Treasurer - Irene Hebert, and Advisor - Sr. Marie Bernard.

"The jig's up, Aunt Emily," says Walter as Miss Ware and Miss Linda Norton look on.

"Blue skies smiling at me," sing the Seniors on their happy night.

A few members of the Business Club get together with Sister Gilbert to send out more "good news cards".

Is Echoes always this much fun???

Hi! We're the Memory Book Staff and we'd like to say it was fun working on your book. A special thank-you to our adviser Sister Louise and photographer Patrick Freeman.

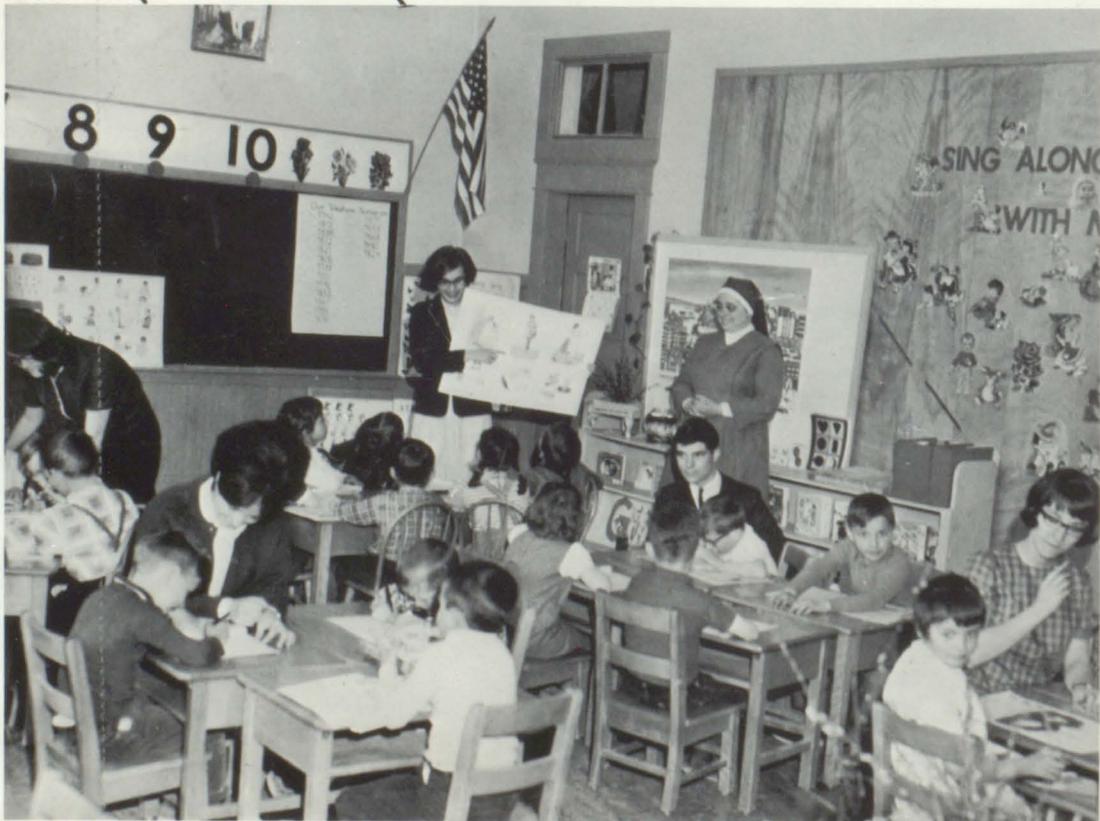

C. Y. O. officers, Treasurer, John Legasse, President, Mike Daigle, Vice-president, Danny Martin, and Secretary, Jesse Michaud, enjoy a chat with Father Long.

The boys' basketball team had a fine season filled with good spirit. A cheer for their coaches Mr. Labroad and Mr. Paradis.

The Senior basketball members with their favorite cheerleaders Sr. Veronica and Mr. Toussaint.

F. T. A. members practice teaching as Sr. Fidelis looks on.

Class Day and Prom

Puff the magic four years, gone by so fast... and so the Junior coolies said, "Soyonara."

Theresa takes her little red Volks to the old Volks home.

Grandpa Foo Ling Chong admires his geisha granddaughters, the Persian dancers, Solange, Sylvia, and Mary Lou.

Smiling faces expressed our appreciation.

After the Grand March we could have danced all night.

Our Graduation

1966 Graduates express their gratitude to God at the Baccalaureate Mass.

It was an honor to pin a corsage on our mothers.

The Processional march what a thrill!
