BICENTENNIAL BRINGS UNITY

Every president except George Washington has lived in the White House. Its cornerstone was laid by Washington in 1792. Changes have been made by every president who occupied it.

AND REFLECTION TO COUNTRY

Our second national birthday is more symbolic than simply its birth and the passing of a two-hundred year period. This celebration also symbolizes achievement and growth, reminding us of the past that shapes our present, and gives hope for a productive future.

Left: Fort Western, Augusta. Used as assembly point by Benedict Arnold for his march to Quebec in 1775.

The Capitol building in Washington, D.C., was started in 1793. By 1800, it had been sufficiently completed so that the government could move here from Philadelphia. The completed north wing housed the House of Representatives, the Senate and the Supreme Court.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY AMERICA — YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY

"Sometimes, you've fallen on your face struggling for that American Dream, your Utopian expectations - But you keep getting up. You're aware of your continual, internal problems - But compared with any other country, you're still the fairest, richest, and 'freest land of all.' "

The U.S. Treasury in Washington, D.C., was burned down three times. President Andrew Jackson designated the location for the next building by driving his sword into the ground.

SPIRIT OF 76 — WINTER CARNIVAL

Teamwork — running, racing, speeding down a slope, gliding on the ice . . .

Determination and efforts combined to produce a competitive and exciting Winter Carnival.

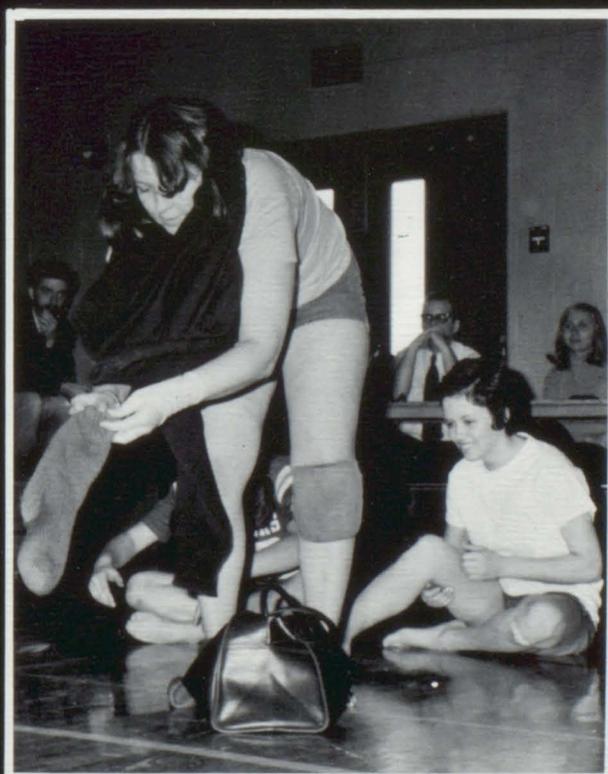

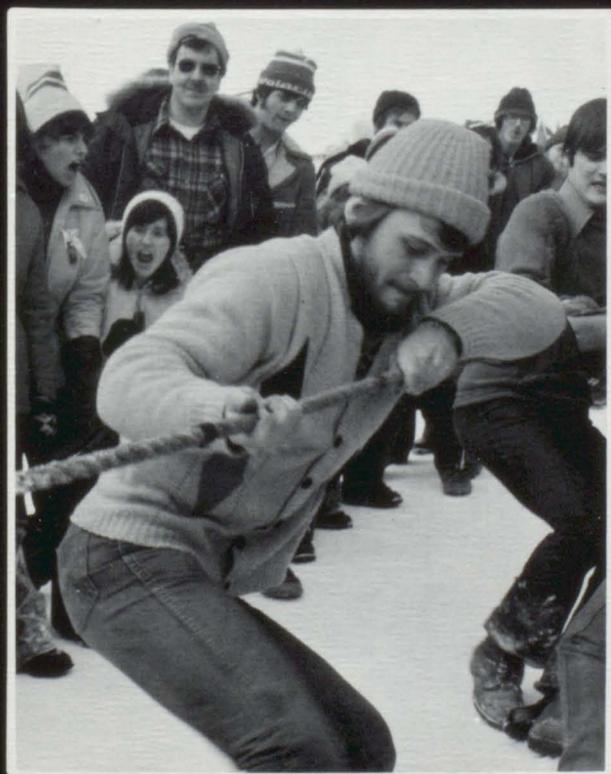

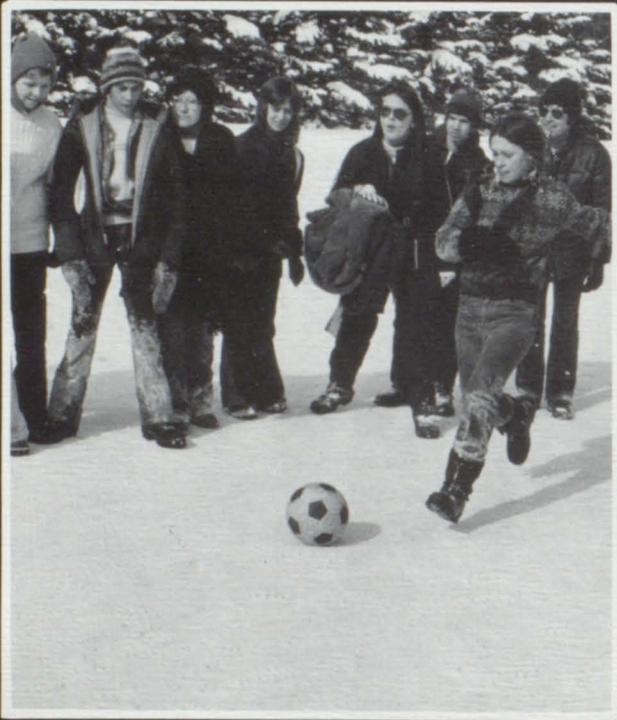

The way is difficult.
But even still, some triumph, some fail.
Everyone pushes forward,
enjoying and cherishing every precious moment.

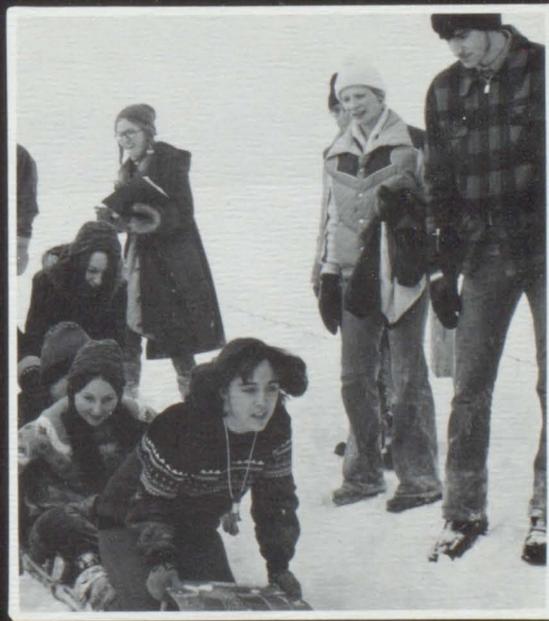

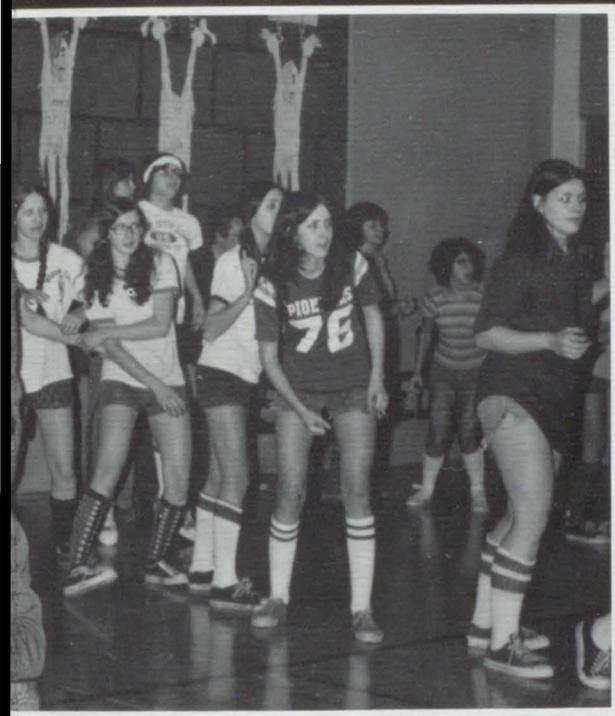

The end of the year is rapidly approaching; we reach out to grasp and hold these memories of our last Winter Carnival close to our hearts.

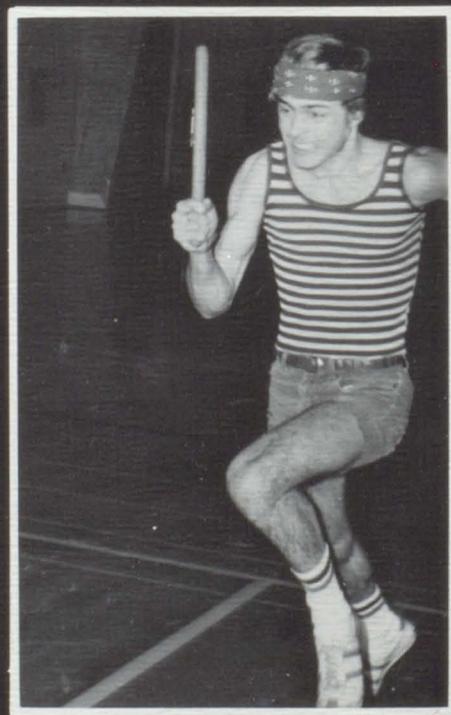

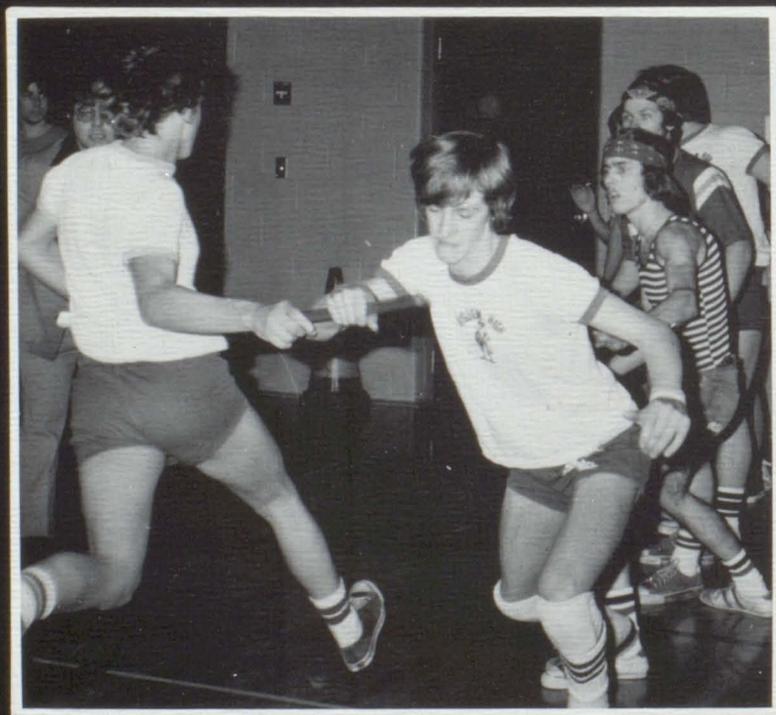

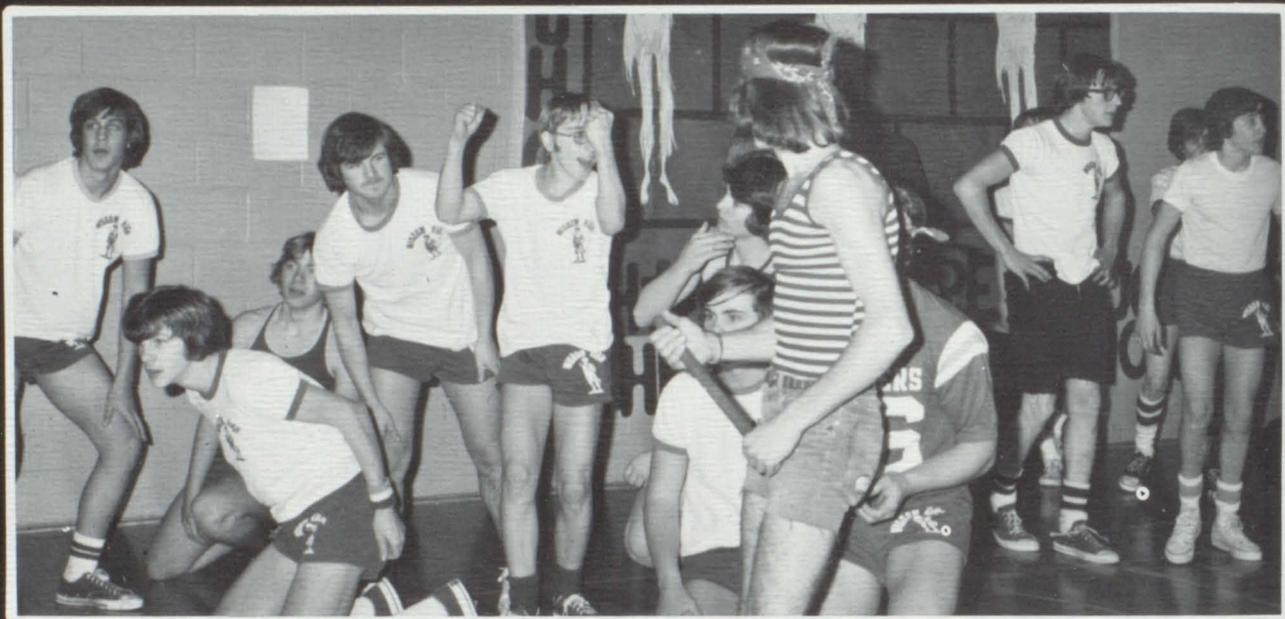

Amidst screams and shouts of joy and sighs of despair and defeat, we struggled forward — never once forgetting that determination, teamwork, and participation are one step closer to winning.

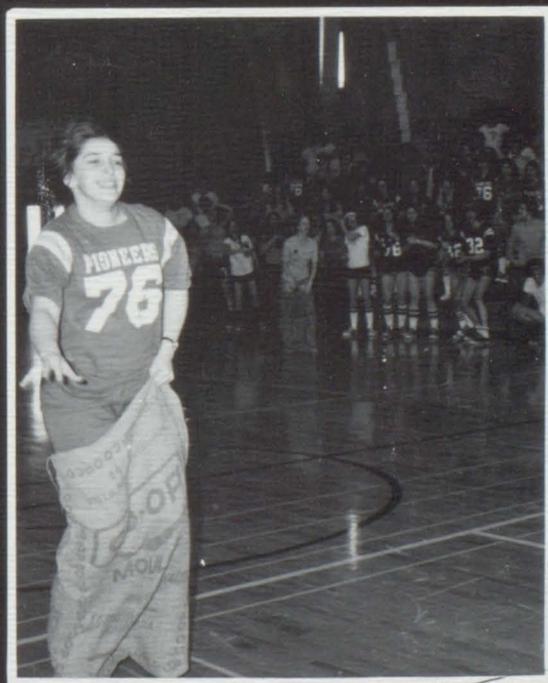

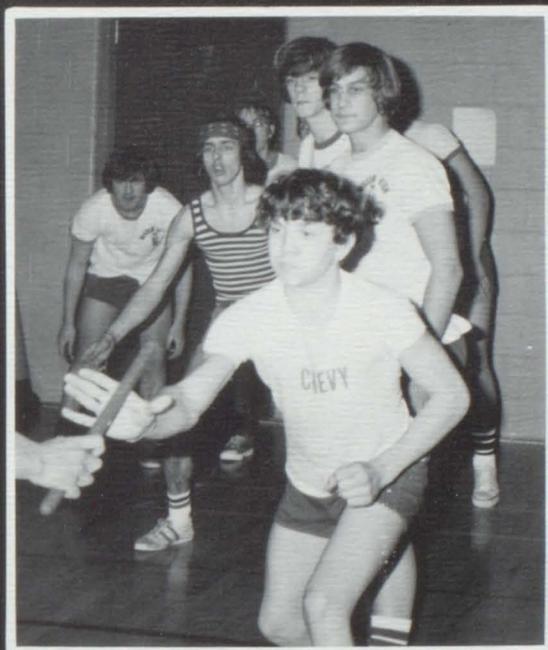

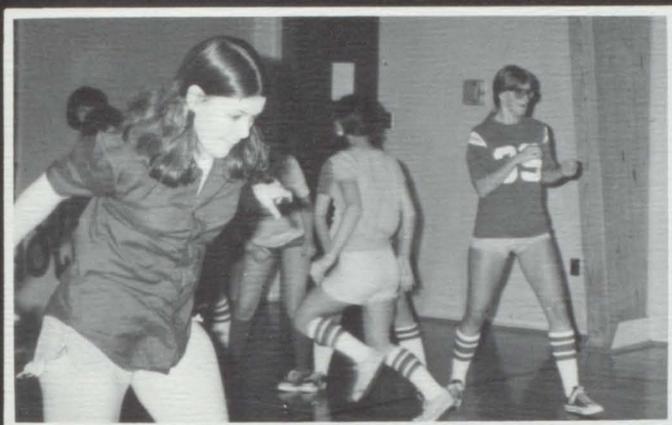

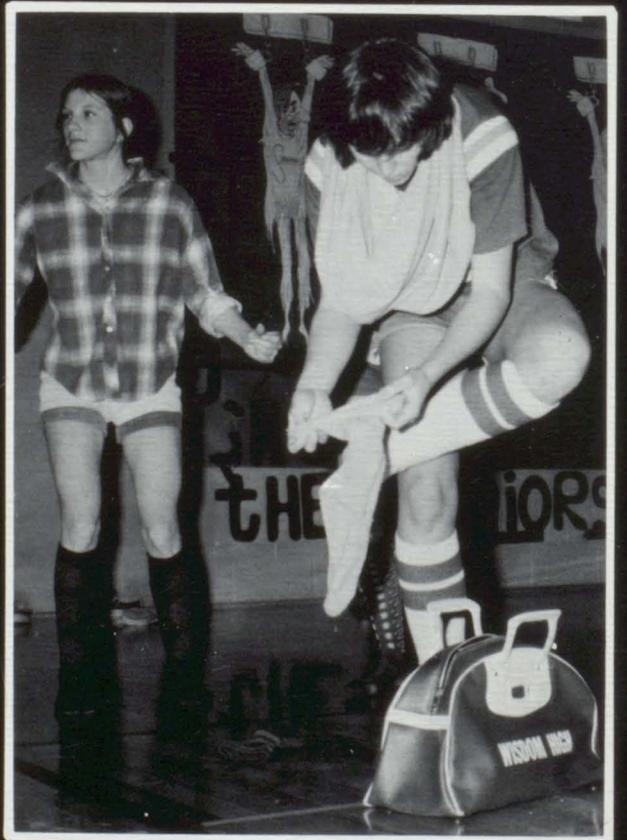

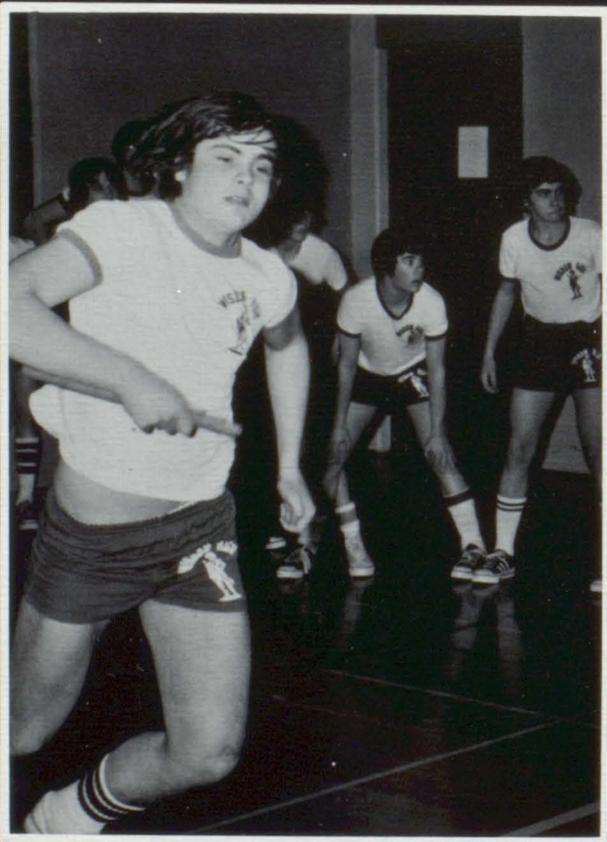

Visions . . . Contemplations . . .
Expressions of Defeat? Victory? Sadness?
Continually forming in students,
United as one, in their attempts to succeed.

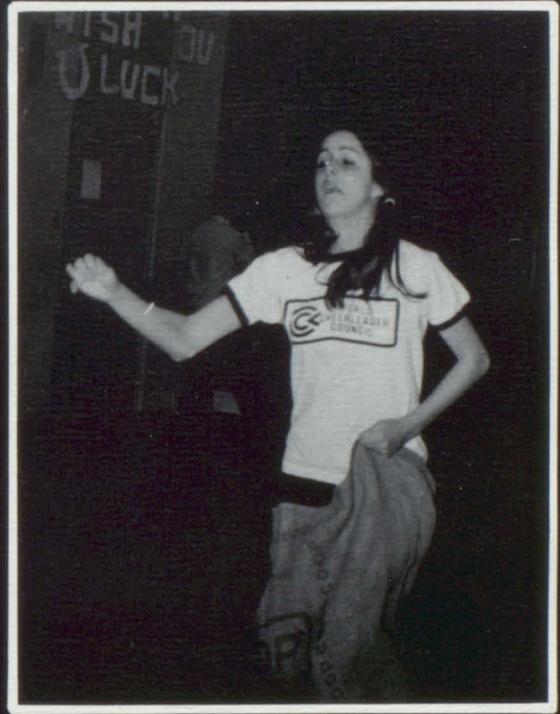

To come out on top . . .
victorious and triumphant during the Winter Carnival . . .
was the goal of many.

The Carnival . . . it will be here forever,
brightening up the winter months —
holding fun and surprises, spirit and cheer, winners and losers, hard work and accomplishments . . . Anticipate!

And now as the end draws near,
we pause to remember the good times and attest that it was only through the sharing of ourselves that these activities met with the success that they did.

Many weeks of participation
culminate in one memorable evening.
Everyone sings, everyone anticipates.
Results are announced — one class triumphs.
The new Carnival Royalty begin their new reign.

SPIRIT OF '76

Crowds cheering
Drums booming
Children peering
Cannonballs booming

Shouts coming forth from a thousand voices
Hailing joyfully their freedom of choices!

Men marching
Dogs barking
Horses arching
Town criers barking

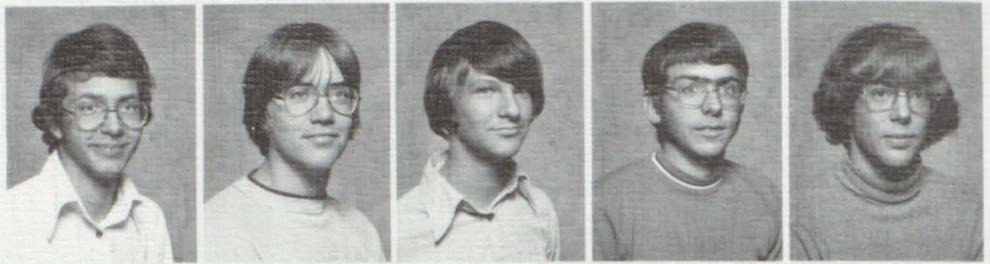

Proud men on platforms are extolling with fervor
Great speeches repeated, now and forever!

Now a famous bell is tolling,
A deep resonance springing,
The clear proud tones are rolling,
And the people begin singing.

SPIRIT OF "76"

My spirit dwells in thee,
with the light and brightness of many moons. And the beam it casts upon the waters reaches out to engulf me and give me eternal peace and solitude.
Thou art so mighty with life,
gushing forth with such beauty and boundfulness, that my heart becomes one with my soul,
and my soul becomes one with thee.

FRESHMEN

WHAT PRICE LIBERTY?

I now understand the men who have come
To settle the land - that which belonged to none.
They are men of freedom, men of pride,
Using God and his book as their only guides.

As I circle the winds of the sky,
A breeze tells me men will soon die.
But why, I ask myself, must this come to be?
The breeze answers, "Others oppose their will to be free."

Then one day when the sun is bright and high,
I see brave men fighting, I see brave men die.
Death is busy at work, scythe in air,
A youngster falls, only his family will ever care.

The smoke has cleared now . . . The battles are won

The worry, the pain, all misery is done.
They celebrate now, throughout the years they have fought.

For Liberty, now won, it fills their every thought.

They are now forming a strong nation,
They have elected a Congress and a legislature.
Now they have chosen me, their symbol to be -
I, the American Bald Eagle, strong and free.

The 1976 Pioneer represents the true spirit of dedicted hours and efforts spent by the members of the Yearbook Staff in preparing a book that is satisfactory to the students. The staff strived to portray the eventful 1975-1976 school year into a tangible volume of memories.

The Yearbook Staff would like to take this opportunity to express thanks to the many people who have made this yearbook possible.

All in all, the completion of the yearbook was the result of the joint effort of the faculty, students, and the Yearbook Staff members.
