Ms. Cynthia Daigle attended UMFK and earned her teaching degree. She taught in Eagle Lake prior to Wisdom. This year will be her 10th year at Wisdom. Ms. Daigle has two wonderful daughters, Aubrie and Renee, and a precious granddaughter, Mikayl, whom she loves dearly. She dedicates a lot of time to her students and always makes her class interesting, whether it's through her crazy comments, singing, or her DVD fireplace. English isn't the easiest or most exciting class, but she always does her best to keep her students intrigued. When she is not working she enjoys reading, watching her fish, spending time with Mikayl, and more reading.

Sometimes I wish I could go back to the days when I was six and my biggest problem was what kind of dress to put on my Barbie's or whether or not I had enough Lego's to build a fort.

Club Can't Handle Us!

The beautiful senior girls!

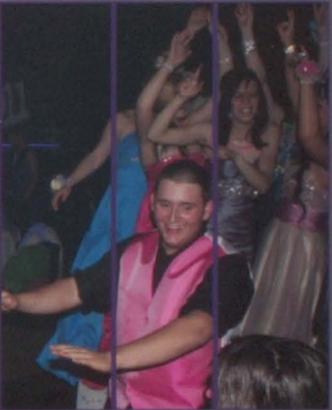

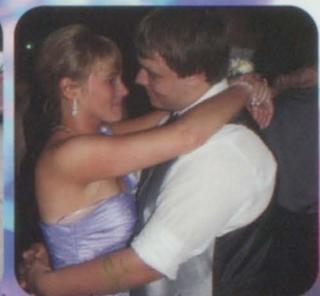

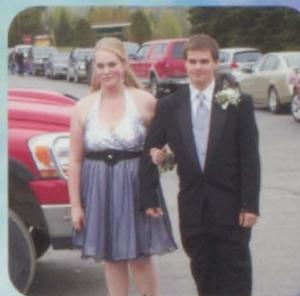

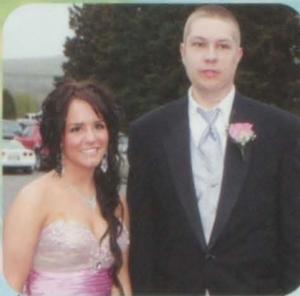

For the first time Wisdom From committee decided to mix it up by choosing a prom theme that was more outgoing than formal. Flashing lights blinded the dance floor and black lights illuminated messages on the walls as well as the arms of the dancers. Overall, this prom was surely one to remember.

"You know I know how to make 'em
stop and stare
as I zone out
The Club Can't
even handle me
right now"
