FACES . . . cheerful,
dazed, posed,
and precious. The appearance of our colleagues . . .
caught in a twinkling . . . captured for our remembrance.

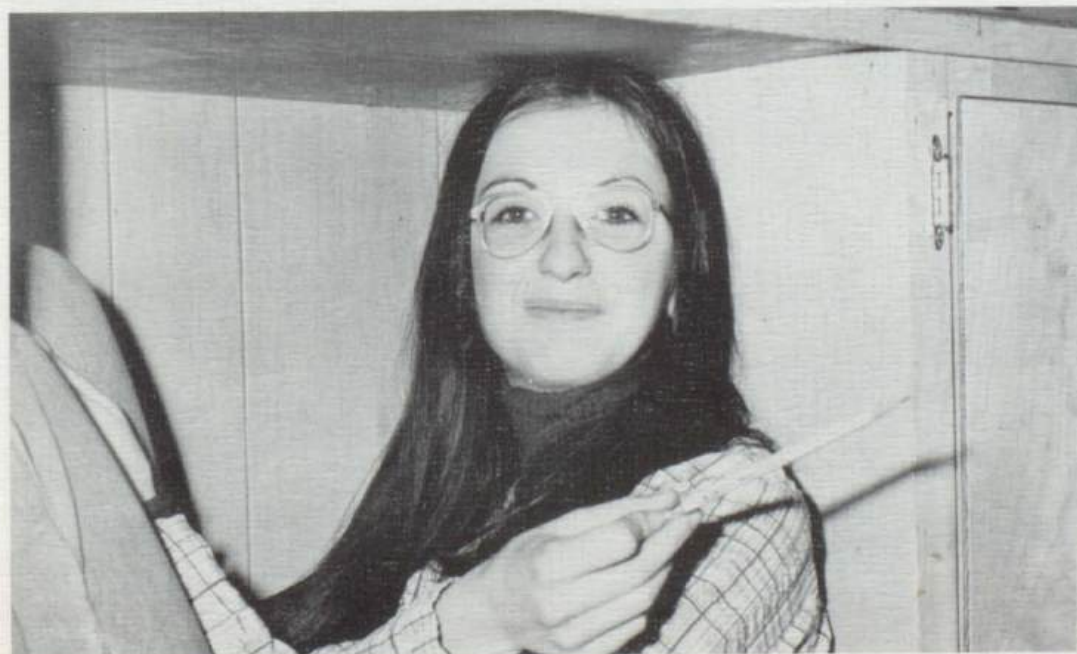

Smiles . . .

signs and sounds . . . visages reflect them all. The faces contemplate.

The faces ventilate the story. The faces note its chapters.

Everywhere there are faces . . .
some cheerful, some somber with contemplation,
some melancholy . . . but always they are there.
Faces are sometimes mirrors which reflect what we see and sometimes windows that let others view. Do we know the intention of faces? Do we grasp the drama they disclose?

Racked with confusion,
Many a person cannot decide,
Yet it is done,
With a touch of uncertainty,
But a lot of pride.

Decisions are finalized
Minds are made-up;
Still a trace of doubt is detectable.

Weeks pass, thoughts fade,
Suddenly they appear bringing back
all memory,
And in bewilderment many look on
At portraits unique in every way.

Though success did not accompany
our efforts,
We all cherished the opportunity of being united as a class in our last WHS Winter Carnival.

A single word . . .

look . . .

touch . . . or motion conveys a message of unity.

Amidst the anguished and

Carla Wins Regional Typewriting Contest

Thirty students from Caribou, Fort Kent, Limestone, Madawaska, St. Agatha, and Washburn met at Madawaska High School on May 1 to participate in the first Regional Typewriting Contest.

Carla was judged as best typist.

She also took third place in the State Typewriting contest held in Waterville on May 11.

The test consisted of 3 five-minute timed writings, one rough draft letter and tabulation, and a centering problem.

June 5, 1974

As the 1973-1974 school year draws to a close, there are many things that each student holds as a dear memory of Wisdom High School. Things have not always been as you wanted them to be, but all things have many times worked together for the good.

Now as you go your separate ways, not knowing if happiness or sorrow will cross your path, hold the thoughts of your days spent in Wisdom High as the happiest of your life. Turn to this rambling structure which houses the best of students and adults and simply say, "Thanks for the memory."
