The Class of 2002 is a very different group. We seem to be a little independent. Yet, when we need to pull together we seem to get through it as a whole. We've been through a lot together and it's unbelievable how limited our time together is. But in the one year that we have left to spend together as a class, we will try to make the best of it and live the rest of our lives with no regrets!

Freshmen Class

We, the class of 2004, have been close friends for as long as we can remember. Since kindergarten, we have been there for each other. Through the good and bad times. Supporting each other in different events such as: Winter Carnival, sports, band, and various fund-raisers, has brought us closer than ever!

We are determined to reach any goals that we set. We're willing to go out and to try our best to achieve those goals.

Even though we are a close-knit class, we still have our own individual qualities. Yet, through it all, we have learned to respect each other's differences.

All in all, we feel that our class will accomplish a lot in the four years that we have left together.

We have something to face, something uncertain and unpredictable. We are beginning the next chapter of our lives. The journey with which we are about to be faced, is, without a doubt, a marking in our lives. Footprints in the sand, if you will. But as of now, we have no footprints in the sand, no markings in our lives. Just a blank page, a quaint place, a quiet desert on which we will live, love, and dance. These events will mark our lives and will make footprints in our sand. But until then we will have no markings on our lives. No footprints in our sand.

Our class, the class of 2005, is a class that works really well together. Everyone participates in group activities and always gives 100%. We are always there to lend a helping hand whenever anyone may need it.

Grade

The class of 2006 is a very energetic group. Most of us play sports, and many of us play musical instruments. We all help each other out. We are all very creative. We like to work together and we like working on projects. We all like the internet and not just for educational purposes. We all have different ideas about different things.

The Contest

The Mr. Wisdom contest is for WHS boys to compete for scholarships. This contest is based on four categories, the first is creative wear. Some of the past interesting wears were to see Nate come on stage with only a barrell, or to see Jake give flowers and do a hula dance. The next category is the talent competition. One year Ricky was a Barbie Girl and Justin was a dance instructor. The Third competition is the casual wear. The boys get to dressed up and get to show off for the girls. The last category are questions written by the judges. One question during a previous contest asked James the following: "What would you do if all your friends were going to Costigan's and they wanted you to drink would you?" He said, "That's not hard I'm allergic to Alcohol! Thank you for your support! NHS

National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony on Wednesday, November 29, 2000, at 1:00 p.m., in the Wisdom

High School cafeteria. NHS members Tasha Bourgoin, Julie Sirois, and Kelly Cyr, all 3 seniors, opened the ceremony with a proud Pledge of Allegiance, an informative invocation, and a warming welcome, respectively.

As the candles were lit, one by one, the nominees' stomachs began to turn. Nervous giggles and clammy hands were contagious as present members wove themselves in and out of the rows and rows of chairs. The nominees didn't stop squirming until the moment when a NHS member would tap their shoulder and say, "Congratulations!"

The 6 new National Honor Society members are as follows: Senior; Pam Michaud, Sophomores; Angie Chamberland, Ryan Dymont, Sonya Michaud, Jacob Pelletier, and Jeffery Pelletier.

The new inductees were each presented with a certificate and a National Honor Society membership card by NHS advisor, Mrs. Louise Cyr. The ceremony continued onto a brilliant choral selection which was sung by Kayla Sinclair and Samantha Ramelli, both 7th graders; Junior; Lindsey Cyr, and Pam Michaud, Senior and new NHS member. The piano accompaniment was marvelously played by Madame Helen Ayotte.

Senior and NHS member Sara Tardif then went on to elaborate on the projects that the NHS has taken on in the past and will undertake in the future. Guest speaker, Dr. Charles Lyons, UMFK President, enlightened the student body with the top 10 best pieces of advice that he's ever received.

The ceremony came to a closing with Senior and NHS president, Kelly Cyr, sending the student body to their period 8 classes, and, also, inviting the parents, guests, teachers, and all NHS members to a tea in the cafeteria after the wonderful induction ceremony. Congratulations to all new NHS members, and to the present NHS members as well as Mrs. Louise Cyr, who made the 2000 National Honor Society Induction Ceremony such a success!

SENIORS

Winter Carnival

The Senior class of 2001 can really pull together in a time of need. We've won winter carnival two years in a row, which is a great example of our strength, skills, friendship, and cooperation. When winter carnival comes around, determination and a bit of effort is the key.
